THOMPSON—WILSON

By candlelight, Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Thompson of Vermontville, became the bride of Morris Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wilson of Vermontville. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents on June 15, 1935, at 8:30 p. m.

To the strain of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Aileen Ripley, the bridal party took its place before an improvised altar of pink and white flowers. The background was banked with pink flowers with two wedding bells overhead. On each side of the altar were candlebras with white candles. At the foot of these were baskets of white daisies and foliage. Reverend Kinney officiated.

The bride was dressed in a long gown of white oragandy, white slippers and a long veil and carried a bouquet of pink roses and blue forget-me-nots, and was given in marriage by her father. Mrs. Max Wileden was the matron of honor and wore blue and white peasant dress and carried a bouquet of delphinium and yellow roses. Max Wileden was the best man.

A buffet supper of bridal cake, ice cream and punch was served following the ceremony with Aileen Ripley and Elizabeth Hamilton assisting. The table was laid in white with white tapers and a centerpiece of pink flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are both graduates of Vermontville High School, class of 1932. Mrs. Wilson also graduated from Eaton County Normal, and has taught for two years. Mr. Wilson is associated with his father in the lumber and coal business.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Gamble, Donniss and Hugh of Olivet, and Elizabeth Hamilton and Aileen Ripley of Bellevue.

After a short honeymoon in northern Michigan, the couple will be at home to their friends, in Vermontville.

GEORGE E. GUNN

Mr. Gunn was born in 1862 coming to this state with his parents when four years old and died Friday, June 14. He was educated in the Vermontville schools and later studied a year at Valparaiso, Ind. He went to work in the train department of the Michigan Central Railroad at Jackson in 1885. In 1890 he resigned to organize the trackmen. After three years he accepted the position of Deputy State Labor Commission for this state. In 1893 he married Miss Josie Cole of Muskegon, who was well known as a teacher in the public schools. After nine years of work for the state he took over his mother's farm, which continued to be his home. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. L. Shaw Smith of Rochester, N. Y., and one son, Justus Gunn of Los Angeles, Calif., also two sisters, Mrs. George Angel and Mrs. Charles Boynton of California.

Homer G. Barber received his appointment Tuesday to West Point. He had to sign up there until June 26th, 1939 and enlist in the Army until June 26, 1943, a period of eight years. Mr. Barber will receive a salary while in West Point of $1078 a year of which board, room and tuition will cost him $786.46 and requires an initial deposit at the West Point academy of $300 fee.

Mr. Barber goes to Detroit on June 27th and to West Point June 28th. He will be in West Point constantly and without furlough for a period of eighteen months and will neither leave the academy or be home during that time.

Mr. Barber is the son of the late Keith L. Barber and Eula Barber, and is a grandson of Ed. D. Barber. Vermontville is very proud to know that Mr. Barber received this appointment purely on the basis of educational qualification, he having passed his examination something over a year ago.

SUES FOR DIVORCE

Edna L. Bauer of Vermontville has fled a divorce action against Charles Bauer, to whom she was married in 1906. They have two daughters, 23 and 21 years old. Cruelty and non-support are the charges, an Ionia co-respondent being named. An injunction has been issued restraining defendant from carrying out threats to sell stock, tools and personal property on the 45-acre farm they own jointly in Chester township. The defendant, it is averred, has stated he intended to go to California with the "other" woman.

George D. Granger, 90, retired farmer of Chester village, died Monday at his home following a two-weeks illness. Funeral was held at the home at 2 p. m. Wednesday. Burial in Gresham cemetery. Among the survivors are two sons, Erbie C. Granger of Charlotte and Earl W. Granger of Chester.

Maurice R. Keyworth, elected in April as state superintendent of public instruction, died Saturday in a Sault Ste. Marie hospital from a fractured skull he suffered in a motorcar collision Saturday morning. Eugene B. Elliott, was named by Gov. Fitzgerald as the incoming superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan and two sons and his mother have moved to the former home of Mrs. Lulu Morgan's father, Fred Rawson, on West Main street, bringing their goods from Charlotte the first of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. C. L. D. McLaughlin and Mary, and Millard Pugh went to Diamond Lake Monday afternoon to be on hand for the opening of the fishing season Tuesday. They report fairly good fishing—enough to supply their table while at the lake. They returned Wednesday afternoon. Mary will leave Sunday for six weeks summer school at Ypsilanti.

CANBERG—WOODARD

Miss Catherine Canberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Canberg of Lansing, and Mr. Hiram Woodard, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Woodard, were united in marriage June the twentyfifth.

Mrs. Mary Margaret Spurrell leaves Detroit Saturday morning in company with two girl friends for California. They will visit at Chicago, San Diego exposition, Tia Juana Hollywood, and Mexico. Mrs. Spurrell will possibly return via a southern route and visit her brother, Douglas Hall and family in Houston Texas.
