On Wednesday last, Hubert Wilson was called into the Chicago office of Heyman-Michel, contractors, and offered a position as Superintendent with their company. He returned home, and severed his connection with the Grego Co., for whom he has worked for several years, and left Friday morning for Kansas City, where he will remain a few days in conference with some of the officials getting a line on his new work. His first job will be on the Santa Fe railroad, in N. Mexico, where he will begin by the middle of the week. The company are sending down a new Plymouth car to be used in connection with the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lumbert of E. Vermontville have sold their farm—the old McIntire farm—to Arthur Appleman of Nashville who will take possession about Oct. 1. The Lumberts have rented the M. A. Mahar farm and will move there this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Weiler and family have moved to the house on West First street owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bartig, vacated a yr. ago by the Squires family.

Mrs. Edna Gehman Graves came last night from Texas to visit her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. James Boyles and other relatives. She will be here three or four weeks. Her husband will come later. Rev. and Mrs. Rood have been reappointed to Bloomfield, Iowa charge and Ruby and husband Rev. and Mrs. Erwin Tando to Hastings, Iowa.

Mrs. Ben Shetehelm, son Philip and daughter Maradell of Lake City were Monday dinner guests of their sister and aunt Mrs. O. B. Tubbs. In the afternoon they went on to Kalamazoo where Philip took the train that evening for Annapolis for his fourth year at the U. S. Naval Academy and Maradell entered Western State Teachers College for her third year. Mr. and Mrs. Shetehelm expect to motor to Annapolis next June to see their son graduate and bring him home for a month's vacation before he receives his commission in the navy.

Mrs. Minnie McEachern of Ann Arbor was buried Tuesday afternoon at Vermontville. She was the widow of Dr. J. D. McEachern, who passed away in 1920. She is survived by two children, Mary at home and Hugh of Ann Arbor. Mrs. McEachern was an active member of the Methodist church, Ladies Aid, Eastern Star and the Maccabees.

Mrs. Mary Dikeman has been very ill with heart trouble, but we are glad to report her gaining a little. Miss Naomi Andrews is caring for her.

Dr. Neil McLaughlin has installed a very convenient and attractive children's dental unit in his office. The unit consists of a child's size ivory chair, a doll-house instrument cabinet, a motor and also a fine special dental light consisting of a cluster of four attractive lights installed just in front of his dental chair. In fact, Dr. McLaughlin's office now is as completely and tall offices in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Berry and son will leave Battle Creek Friday morning, by auto, for a ten day's visit with Mr. Berry's people in Rome and Atlanta, Georgia, and on Sunday afternoon there was a family gathering at the home of Mrs. Berrys parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Loveland, to wish them a happy journey.

Dr. C. L. D. McLaughlin, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mary, and Millard Pugh motored to Ann Arbor Sunday afternoon when Millard returned to enter his senior year in the Dental College, and Mary accompanied friends from Hillsdale to her teaching position in the city after a few days vacation on account of the Hillsdale county fair.

Forrest and Morris Wilson decided Sunday to get up in the world so they ascended a distance of 6200 feet about noon and saw the few clouds from the silver lining side. It was a beautiful day and they report the scenery wonderful, but the air very cold above the clouds.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Epley and Clara Jane moved Wednesday to Grand Rapids. Postmaster and Mrs. M. A. Mahar and family have rented the Epley house and will move there next week from their farm on Irish street. The Bert Lumbert family of East Vermontville have rented the Mahar farm and as soon as they are located there, Mr. Appleman and family of Nashville will take possession of their recently purchased Lumbert farm.

Mrs. Oda Rood writes these interesting items about her family: Ruby and her husband are located at Hastings, Iowa, 200 miles from here, about 15 mi. from the Neb. line. They have a nice modern church building and a six room parsonage next door. Only one church to serve, no other in the town. Leeta and husband are in Madison, Wis. in city mission work under the Volunteers of America. Deone teaches at Selma, 25 miles N. E. of here. Mabel and Irene are finishing this year at University Park. Carl still picking apples in the Yakima Valley. We are to be here at Bloomfield, Iowa again this year.
