

Thursday, December 19, 1935 Thursday, January 2, 1936

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gehman and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gehman and Ann left Tuesday morning, equipped with a fine new house car, for the south. The senior Mrs. Gehman, however, only going as far as Bellevue where she left the party to go to Kalamazoo for an over night visit with Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Sprague and then on to Winona, Minn. for a few weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Ross, and family, before joining the others in Florida. The Gehmans will be located for a time, as least, at Sarasota. They plan to remain in the south for two months. Mrs. Gehman's Winona address is 350 W. 5th street, and the Florida address is Sarasota, Gen. Del.

Mrs. Wallace Merriam writes: Just received a letter from my sister, Mrs. Bernice Dash, (she lives in Elba, N. Y., 40 miles east of Buffalo) saying that she was one of the five women to receive a prize in the Dionne quilt contest sponsored by the Buffalo News of Buffalo, N. Y. The five lucky ladies whose quilts were the best, were awarded a free trip, with all expenses paid at the best hotels, and accompanied by a nurse to look after their health to Calander, Ont., the home of the famous quintuplets where each presented a "quin" with her quilt. The trip lasted three days. She said they were lovely children.

GEHMAN-EMERY 179

This last week witnessed the wedding of one of Vermontville's highly respected young ladies in the marriage Saturday noon, December 14th of Eliza H. Gehman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gehman to Harry A. Emery of Nashville.

The wedding took place in the home of Mr. Emery, north of Nashville and in the presence of their immediate families.

Mrs. H. H. Brown has received the announcement of the marriage of her grandson, Lawrence Garlinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Garlinger, to Miss Ruth G. Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gardner, at their home in Woodland township, at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, December 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hawkins report the birth of a little grandson, James William, born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hawkins at Bear Lake, where Robert is working at tree surgery.

Those who are fortunate enough to be relatives of the little Duckworth triplets of Lansing, Bethany, Bradley and Barbara, received unique Christmas cards with a photo of the triplets on the cards. Among those here in town were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hawkins and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hawkins.

Mr and Mrs. Leonard Reynolds and son Harold of Battle Creek ate Christmas dinner with Mrs. Henry H. Brown. In the evening all attended the wedding of Mrs. B's grandson Lawrence H. Garlinger, of Castleton and Miss Ruth G. Gardner of Woodland at the home of the bride's parents.

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis VanGeetury of rural route 6, Charlotte, early Monday morning, December 30th at Hayes-Green Hospital at Charlotte. Mrs. VanGeetury and baby are progressing nicely and will leave the hospital the latter part of the week. Mrs. Grant Hawkins will spend some time helping care for their great granddaughter.

Mrs. Harley Dorman and son Bruce of Detroit visited Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Hallenbeck and family and other relatives from Friday to Monday. Mr. Dorman was on a business and pleasure trip to Cadillac.

LEGION NEW YEARS PARTY

A fine New Years party was given by the American Legion at their hall New Years Eve, games were played after which a Gouloush supper was served. The following were present; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dickey and Patty, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Dancer, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Tubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dane, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hepker, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walsh, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. D. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hitt and Junior, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Slout, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Hine, Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Faust, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Weiler and family, Mrs. Edith Allover, Mr. E. D. Barber, Mr. L. D. Polley, Mr. Lincoln Hines, and Mr. Chas. Weiler.

Thursday, January 9, 1936

Miss Norena Snell received a letter from Mrs. Roberta Pope Canaan of Portland, Oregon, last week, saying her husband passed away several months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. H. Lamb, who were at Dade City at Christmas time, have moved on southward, and are now located at Ada, Fla., where Mr. Lamb is improving. His health permitted them to go only a comparatively short distance each day on their way to the sunny south.

Mrs. Myrtle Hayward has closed her home near Jackson, and gone to the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Bettes, in Sparta, to remain until spring.

L. Verne Slout is directing a local cast of players who will present "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the school auditorium the later part of January.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Strait left for Clearwater, Florida, Monday morning. They have a fine house trailer and will enjoy the sunny clime until Mr. Strait's health shows improvement. Their address is Clearwater, General Delivery.

Rev. Ralph M. Dean, of the Michigan Conference, has been transferred to take up his duties as chaplain of the CCC camp in the Sparta, Wisconsin, district. We can be sure that the Sparta district will be conscientiously served.

W. L. Gehman and Earl Gehman and family report the vegetation at Sarasota, Florida had been nipped by the frost and they were going farther south, probably to Fort Myers.

Walter Barningham has opened a law office at 1016 Peoples State Bank Building, Pontiac. He is in the same building where A. G. Leonard has his law office. Many of our readers will remember Mr. Leonard as Supt. of Vermontville schools more than ten years ago.

Thursday, January 16, 1936

MRS. C. F. FULLER

Eliza M. Boyd, daughter of Alexander and Sarah Boyd, was born August 26th, 1848 in Russle, St. Lawrence County, New York. She departed this life on January 8th, 1936, aged 87 years, 4 months and 13 days.

She was united in marriage to Charles F. Fuller in December, 1888. Mr. Fuller passed away January 16, 1928. He had two daughters by a former marriage: Mrs. Eva King, who passed away on Nov. 7, 1925, and Mrs. Ethel Gehman, who passed away on May 10, 1932.

Mrs. Fuller leaves to mourn their loss: one sister, Mrs. P. B. Wells of Vermontville; two brothers, Charles Boyd of Jackson and Fred Boyd of Vermontville; seven grandchildren; twenty great grandchildren; eight great great grandchildren.