

children, several nieces and nephews, and a host of friends.

Mrs. Fuller was a life long member of the Christian Fellowship; belonging in early womanhood to the Baptist Church and later uniting with the Congregational Church in Vermontville. She was a faithful member of the Woman's Relief Corps. For twenty-three terms she was a teacher in the district schools having begun to teach when she was 15 years old.

She was a woman of sterling character; a kind neighbor, always willing to help in bearing the burdens of others; and one who was very devoted to her family. She had lived in this community nearly 60 years and for 47 years had lived in the home where she passed away.

The funeral services were held at the home Saturday afternoon, January 11th, at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. James H. Stein. Members of the American Legion, Childs-Demaray Post No. 222, participated in the services. Interment was made in the Woodlawn Cemetery.

LOVELL—WRIGHT, 80

A very impressive marriage ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arby Lovell, Lake Odessa, when their only daughter, Ruth, was united in marriage to Harry Wright of Charlotte. The ring service was performed by Rev. Ernest Wheeler of the Woodbury U. B. Church Christmas night under an arch of white and silver Christmas bells and silver tinsel by the light of white tapers. Preceding the service read the Christmas story from the Bible. They were attended by Ellis Lovell, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Garry Marsh, sister of the groom.

Thursday, January 23, 1936

E. J. Loveland has received the appointment of Vermontville mail carrier to and from the depot. His duties begin Friday.

Vernon Lett from Kalamazoo began his duties as our M. C. station agent January 10th. Mr. and Mrs. Lett are stopping temporarily with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopper.

Fred Boyd was the owner of the money found by Mrs. Ernest Rawson and it was restored to him soon after the Echo was issued last week.

W. B. Woodard has purchased the John Lozo property on East Main street, for many years the G. B. Morey place, and will take possession as soon as some redecorating is made.

GREGG—CONROY

(Belding Banner, Jan. 9, 1936)

A lovely church wedding which was an event of New Year's Day was that of Miss Ruth Gregg daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gregg, of this city, and Robert Conroy of Battle Creek. The wedding was solemnized at 12 o'clock noon in the First Congregational church of Battle Creek with Rev. Carleton Brooke Miller, pastor, as officiating clergyman.

A musical prelude was played by the church organist, followed by the wedding march. The bride and groom with their attendants, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Neher of Kalamazoo, close friends, took their places before the church altar which was beautifully decorated with ferns, cut flowers and lighted tapers. The impressive double ring service was used and over 60 friends and relatives were in attendance. During the postlude, an informal reception was held in the church parlors, after which the bridal couple left for Chicago. Those attending from this city were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gregg and son, Frank, Mrs. Etta Ambrose, Mrs. Robert Barron, Miss Margaret Barron, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Spencer and son, Richard.

Mr. and Mrs. Conroy will reside at 165 W. Territorial Road, Battle Creek. The former has a responsible position with the Duplex Printing Press Co. and the latter will continue with her duties for the Kellogg Food Co.

Thursday, January 30, 1936

Mrs. Eleanor Morgan of the Hallenbeck school was on her way home last week Wednesday, headed for the Ames school where Mrs. Thea Wilkes teaches, who with Mrs. Kelly of the Gresham school rides to Charlotte with her. Before reaching the Ames school, near the Kline farm her car became stalled in the snow and she talked to the Ames. When she reached there her feet were frozen which has caused much suffering, but she is recovering. Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Morgan's mother, Miss Beulah Hager is substituting for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon MacDonald of Chicago came Saturday to visit her parents and help them celebrate their silver anniversary. When they left Chicago it was 1 below zero. They returned Sunday afternoon.

A 7 lb baby girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kroger last Friday evening and a 8 1-4 lb baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schultz of Chester Station on Saturday afternoon are reported by Dr. McLaughlin. They have been named Marilyn Mae and Donald David respectively.

MRS. CHARLES MANKTELOW

(Cadillac Evening News)

Funeral services for Mrs. Charles W. Manktelow, 52, who passed away Tuesday afternoon, January 21, 1936, in Mercy Hospital, following an operation for tumor to which she submitted last Wednesday, will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 from the home at 415 Stimson street.

Mrs. Manktelow had been prominent in Y. W. C. A. and philanthropic work. She was born Bessie Ella Bottomley, August 18, 1883, at Vermontville and was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bottomley, both of whom are deceased. Mr. Bottomley passed away several weeks ago.

Coming to Cadillac in 1905 as an employee of the Citizens Telephone company, Mrs. Manktelow was married in 1914. Prior to coming here, she had attended Ferris Institute at Big Rapids and had worked for the telephone company at Vermontville.

Surviving are the husband and a step-mother, Mrs. Lee Bottomley of Portland.

MR. AND MRS. J. M. LENT HONORED ON 25TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Saturday evening, January 25th, Mr. and Mrs. Milton J. Lent found themselves honor guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Kepker where a group of friends had gathered as a surprise to them, in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary.

After congratulations had been extended to Mr. and Mrs. Lent, the evening was happily spent with games and music, followed by a mid-night supper and the presentation of a silver gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Lent were married in Chicago, at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Loomis just twenty-five years ago. During the early years of their married life they resided in Chicago, but for the past twelve years they have been highly esteemed residents of Vermontville and vicinity.

Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hallenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walsh, Mr. L. H. Colburn, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon MacDonald of Chicago, Mr. Ray Anderson of Detroit and Miss Nettie Walsh of Lansing.