BEVERLY ANN TUBBS

Beverly Ann Tubbs, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence R. Tubbs, was born March 20, 1933, and passed to her Eternal Home Feb. 28, 1936. Though of frail health, a child of more patient or sweeter disposition could not be desired. A smile was most always on her face even under the constant handicap of physical pain. She passed away peacefully and sweetly, as she had always lived. She leaves to mourn her loss, her devoted parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Tubbs, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Surine, and Mr. and Mrs. Orin Tubbs, and aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Surine, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tubbs, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kroger and many other relatives and friends. After funeral services at the home, interment was made at Woodlawn Cemetery, Rev. H. H. Kinney officiating.

We are sorry to hear of Mrs. Bert Bisel's misfortune Wednesday night. The family had come down town to Roy Mathew's dance where Mr. Bisel plays the banjo and piano in the orchestra and just as she stepped from the car she collapsed and suffered a stroke. She was taken to Dr. Kelsey's office and later removed to her home in the Ward ambulance. Dr. Kelsey reports her some better this morning, however her left leg is paralyzed with only little feeling in the right.

Cadet Barber
United States Military Academy
West Point, New York

Mr. Editor:

As you can observe, Eaton county is still represented in the Academy. So far I have found the school very satisfactory and have no regrets over leaving the University of Michigan. It has been a great experience and one I won't forget for years to come.

You have no idea how much more thorough this place is compared to other colleges and Universities. They teach according to a system which was first used in 1817. Every student is required to recite each day and at the end of the week all the daily grades are posted. This certainly is different from college where I attended class when I felt like it and recited once a semester. I have studied more during the six months I have been a Cadet than I did my three years in college. Over a hundred men were found deficient in one or two subjects at Christmas time and were discharged. It's a question of either put out in your studies, or get out altogether.

As you doubtless know the Corps of Cadets was enlarged this last year to about 1600 men. By 1950 they plan to increase this number to 1950 men. It seems that our army is in the process of being enlarged to meet the threat of foreign powers.

I have about a year to go before I come home and I'm already counting the days. Convey my regards to Lawrence Robinson and my other Charlotte friends.

Very truly yours,

L. Fourrier Ave. — Homer G. Barber

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Childs and daughter are now occupying the Granger brick farm home, after spending some months with her mother Mrs. Adeline Granger, in the new house nearby. Keith Granger and family have moved back to Lansing.

Mrs. Mitchell (wife of Rev. C. C. Mitchell, former pastor of the Congregational Church of this place) and her daughter Ruth (Mrs. Ivan Anderson, 206 E. Grand River, Lansing), called on Rev. and Mrs. F. P. Sprague and other Vermontville friends Monday.

Mrs. Perry Well has a long time correspondence record with the Echo. She says until the family moved to town she had continuously written items for this paper since she was 15 years old when her mother, Mrs. Louis King, was our South Vermontville correspondent. And we might add that she is one fine correspondent.

One of our latest Echo subscriptions came from Mrs. Janette McCarty, 44 Amity St., Amhurst, Mass., for her sister Mrs. Lucelia (Lula) B. Wiard of 111 West 3rd street, Port Angeles, Wash. It has been about fifty years since Mrs. Wiard visited Vermontville, and many changes have been made in that time, yet to read the old home town paper again will be a pleasure to her. Her girlhood home was in the Wells district, and she is remembered by many of the older residents of the community. Mrs. Wiard is nearly ninety years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wicksall and family moved recently from Trempealeau, Wis. to Redwing, Minn. The truck transferring their household goods caught fire en route and the family had the misfortune to lose their bedding, furniture and the children's good clothes. Mr. Wicksall is the son of Mrs. W. L. Gehman.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wilson will move from the Mrs. Sarah Wright house on West Fifth street to the William Griswold farm on North Main street, as soon as the Joe Faust family vacate. The Wilsons purchased the farm some time ago. The young people will begin farming with a new Oliver tractor and a full equipment of new Oliver tools.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Davis of New York arrived Sunday night on a business trip to several Michigan cities and are visiting his brother Dr. G. J. Davis and family and her mother Mrs. Edith Stout and family.

FAUST—MATTSON

Early on Sunday morning, March 22nd., in a simple and impressive ceremony, Wilma M. Faust of Lansing, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Faust of Vermontville, was united in marriage to John G. Mattson of Lansing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mattson of the same city.

The ceremony took place at the home of Mrs. Henry H. Brown and was conducted by Rev. J. R. Stein, minister of the Vermontville Congregational Church of which Mrs. Mattson is a member.

Rev. J. R. Stein motored to Sandusky, Ohio last Sunday afternoon to take his sister, who had been visiting him, to the home of their brother, Rev. Joseph Stine, for a few days stay before returning to Philadelphia. Mrs. F. H. Thrun accompanied them as far as
