

MRS. ALICE McCREERY

Alice McCreery was born in Carmel township, Eaton County, Michigan, October 7, 1856, and passed away after an operation for appendicitis at eleven p. m., May 30, 1932. She was the daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth Ash and was married to Elven McCreery December 24, 1876 and moved with him to Walton township where they resided for fourteen years, when they moved back to Carmel and she lived the rest of her life within a half mile of her birth place.

One son, Glenn, was born to this marriage, and he with his wife Maude are left to mourn the loss of his mother, Mr. McCreery having passed on September 8, 1907.

Alice McCreery was a loved and active member of the Lady Macca-bees, having been a Treasurer for years, of the Carmel Birthday Club, the Valley School P. T. A., the Grange, and the Chester Congregational Church and its Ladies Aid and the Sunday School Bible Class.

She thoroughly loved life and lived and enjoyed it to the full in her quiet way, and will be missed by her large circle of friends.

Services were conducted by Rev. F. P. Sprague of Vermontville, on Thursday 2:00 p. m. at her home and burial was at Maple Hill cemetery, Charlotte.

HATFIELD-PRIDDY WEDDING

The present home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Priddy of Potterville was the scene of a quiet wedding Saturday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock, May 21, when Miss Carolyn Hatfield, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hatfield, and Bruce Paul Priddy, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Priddy, Indiana, were united in marriage. A company of twelve relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hatfield, Howard Hatfield, Mrs. Dana Irvin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rinard, Miss Margaret Schram, Mr. Leslie Greenman, Rev. and Mrs. F. P. Sprague, Miss Doris Martin and Frederick Hatfield, witnessed the ceremony performed by the bride's grandfather Rev. Sprague. The attendants were Miss Doris Martin and Mr. Frederick Hatfield. The bride wore an attractive ankle length costume of powder blue flat crepe and lace and Miss Martin was gowned in Nile green crepe. A buffet supper was served after the ceremony. A number of pretty wedding gifts were received by the bride.

Mrs. Priddy graduated from the Vermontville High School in 1917. She, after graduating from the Eaton County Normal taught four years around Vermontville.

At present, Mr. Priddy has a position with a dairy farm in Potterville.

The young couple will be at their own home to their many friends in Potterville.

SHAYTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bishop spent Monday with their daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Dow.

The L. U. M. S. meets next Thursday, June 16th for supper with Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bosworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grinnell and Mr. and Mrs. Devere Parker of Lansing were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arzeno VanHouten. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schultz of Portland were afternoon callers and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Grimes and children of East Lansing spent Sunday evening with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal VanHouten entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pumfrey and Mr. and Mrs. Bert McWhorter, Sunday.

Little George Hagendorn underwent an operation for appendicitis at Hall hospital, Friday and expects to come home Wednesday.

Wayne Bosworth cut his foot last Friday requiring 5 stitches to close the wound and is under the care of Dr. Huyck.

Leo. Barnum spent Sunday in Lansing with friends and Miss Dorothy, who is attending school in Lansing was home for the week end.

Clifford Coker is sick and under the care of Dr. Finney.

Recent visitors at Edward Barnum's were: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Milbaus and children, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hunt of Lansing. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Moore were Monday callers and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bishop, Wednesday evening visitors.

Clifford Bosworth and family are out again after a three weeks' quarantine of scarlet fever.

KENNEDY-HAWKINS

Robert Hawkins and Miss Madge Kennedy were married Saturday, May 21 at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. V. B. Niles. Mr. John Kennedy acting as best man and Mrs. Frank Fick, of Grand Rapids, sister of the bride as bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins began house-keeping in the groom's home, the old Campbell estate, which was all in readiness for their home.

WILLIAM FOX PASSED AWAY

5-26-32
William Fox passed away at Greeley Fox' in Hastings, Wednesday night. Funeral will be Friday at one o'clock at the house, fast time, and two o'clock at the Dunkard church, 5 miles north of Nashville and 1½ miles west. Burial at the Woodland cemetery.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawes and family visited her mother Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Briggs spent Sunday with Fred Lenz and family of Lansing.

Mrs. Lillie Mosier accompanied the Mack-Dodd family to Quimby to see her granddaughter Mrs. Alice Pennington and family Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lozo did not move their household goods from Mrs. Loveland's house and as they are back to stay are still occupying the same.

Mrs. Celia Bilderbeck is back to the Cecil Powers home from her work at the Briggs home in Kalamo. She visited Mrs. A. E. Crook from Tuesday to Wednesday noon.

Mrs. Wm. Zemke and children and Margareta Zemke were in Detroit Friday and Saturday and while there attended the Shrine circus.

Mrs. Harley Andrews of Nashville and daughter Mildred of Grand Rapids visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Averill on their 61st wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Doris Rockwell, Dorothy Babcock and Kenneth Powers drove to Indiana Saturday evening, meeting Elam Rockwell who was at Fort Wayne.

Two very fine talks were given Sunday at the opening exercises of the Methodist Sunday School. Mr. Schuring speaking on the life of George Washington and Edson Ford that of Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Luban Barnes, who have been on Mrs. Cora Althouse's farm, have purchased the McWha farm, better known as the William Benedict farm, of 147 acres, out West Main street, and are moving this week.

A week ago Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Pullman, Victor Pullman, and Miss Evelyn Counterman visited the former's daughter, Mrs. Clifford Thompson and family in Nashville.

The weather prophets who forecasted a mild winter '33 and '34 will have to change their chart to suit the times. With zero and below zero weather so frequently it seems far from mild.

The annual Washington birthday celebration of mail carriers and ex-mail carriers will be held in Lansing, at the M. E. Temple House, Saturday p. m. and evening. Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hawkins hope to attend. The National President Armstrong, and several officers and others of interest will speak.