

Condensed County Chatter

Frank C. Frey, 66, retired Kalamo township farmer died Sunday evening at his home on Bellevue Route 2. Burial was in Kalamo cemetery. Mr. Frey was born May 27, 1884 in Fostoria, O., the son of Frank A. and Fairy (Heisland) Frey. Surviving are his wife, Cecil; a daughter, Mrs. Ma (Beatrice) Morse of Ann Arbor and three brothers, Fred of Route 2, Vermontville, George of Reading and John of Charlotte; and a sister, Mrs. Clemmetta Link, Sr. of Bellevue.—Mrs. Alice Lucille Miller, 43, of St. Mary's lake, died Monday afternoon in a Battle Creek hospital following surgery. Mrs. Miller was born in Chicago, daughter of Loren H. and Jessie (Newotn) Hoyt, and married Merle J. Miller July 1, 1924, in Bellevue. They lived in the Bellevue area until moving to St. Mary's lake five years ago. Surviving are the mother, Mrs. Jessie Stine of Bellevue and a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Moore of Bellevue. Burial in Riverside cemetery, Bellevue.

Unquestionably any appropriation made for agricultural purpose over which the state maintains control or design requires but to be expense of the state.

Mr. Dell, veteran Lansing coal dealer, died unexpectedly Monday evening in Mason where he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage. He was 67 years old and lived at 907 N. Logan st.

Mr. Dell, a member of the Mason Knights of Pythias, had gone there Monday evening with Ralph Downs of Lansing at attend a bingo party sponsored by the lodge. He is reported to have been getting out of his car when stricken. He was removed to the Mason hospital where he died shortly after midnight.

Mr. Dell owned and operated the Capitol Coal company for 25 years. He came here from Sunfield. He is survived by the widow, Bessie; a daughter, Joyce, at home; a brother, John of Woodland, and five sisters, Mrs. Emma Fisher of Saginaw, Mrs. Ernest Krebs of Sunfield, Mrs. Hannah Waite and Mrs. Walter Tasker, both of Lake Odessa, and Mrs. Louie Wildt of Bellevue.

He was a member of the Lansing Optimist club. The body was removed to the Estes-Leadley funeral home. Funeral services will be held at the Colonial chapel there at 10 o'clock Friday morning. Rev. D. Stanley Coors of Central Methodist church will officiate. Burial will be at Lake Odessa.

Richard E. Heath, 20, Eaton Rapids...

Dies Unexpectedly

EZRA DELL

Mr. Dell, veteran Lansing coal dealer, died unexpectedly Monday evening in Mason where he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage. He was 67 years old and lived at 907 N. Logan st.

Mr. Dell, a member of the Mason Knights of Pythias, had gone there Monday evening with Ralph Downs of Lansing at attend a bingo party sponsored by the lodge. He is reported to have been getting out of his car when stricken. He was removed to the Mason hospital where he died shortly after midnight.

Mr. Dell owned and operated the Capitol Coal company for 25 years. He came here from Sunfield. He is survived by the widow, Bessie; a daughter, Joyce, at home; a brother, John of Woodland, and five sisters, Mrs. Emma Fisher of Saginaw, Mrs. Ernest Krebs of Sunfield, Mrs. Hannah Waite and Mrs. Walter Tasker, both of Lake Odessa, and Mrs. Louie Wildt of Bellevue.

He was a member of the Lansing Optimist club. The body was removed to the Estes-Leadley funeral home. Funeral services will be held at the Colonial chapel there at 10 o'clock Friday morning. Rev. D. Stanley Coors of Central Methodist church will officiate. Burial will be at Lake Odessa.