

Floyd Fuller of Brighton, Mrs. George Wren of Indianapolis, Ind., Mrs. Robert Baker of Lansing and Vera Keefer at home; 18 grandchildren, and one niece, Mrs. Clarence Dutcher of Lansing.

Services were conducted from the Mapes Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon with Theodore Seavolt officiating. Interment was in the Meadow Brook cemetery at Mulliken.

Clarence Dutcher, Robert Dutcher, Glen Dutcher, Milford Mason, Kenneth Dickerson and John Dickerson served as pallbearers.

Joseph Baisel 90 died at his home in Millett where he had lived the past 20 years. At one time he lived on Hunter St. on the farm now owned by Stanley Howe and operated a threshing machine outfit for a number of years. C. B. Ray Baisel recently killed by the train at Deep Cut was a son. Four sons survive, and two daughters. Rev. L. B. Niles preached the funeral sermon at Gorsline-Runciman Funeral home Lansing. Interment in Deepdale.

SAM TOBY'S RELATIVE DROWNS

Arthur R. Friestram, 52 a Kalamazoo restaurant owner, and Harold Reynolds 30, of Battle Creek, were fishing at Asylum Lake near Kalamazoo Saturday.

The ice was soft and both men went down. Harold was rescued when witnesses threw out a rope. Mr. Friestram's body was not recovered until later. Harold was taken to the hospital and last reports he is better. Mr. Friestram was a son-in-law of Sam Toby of Vermontville and Reynolds a son of Mrs. Toby. He came from Battle Creek Friday night and Saturday took them to Kalamazoo to spend the week end with Mr. Toby's daughter. Funeral services for Arthur R. Friestram were held at the Truesdale Funeral Home in Kalamazoo at 1:30 Wednesday. His widow survives, also his aged father and 3 brothers of Kalamazoo and one in California, who flew for the funeral and one sister in Indiana. They had no children.

Harold was released from Bronson hospital Tuesday night and brought his mother home. They returned for the funeral Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Toby will be home the last of the week.

Mrs. Nellie Riley Hudnut
BELDING, June 26—Mrs. Nellie Riley Hudnut, 84, widow of Rev. J. A. Hudnut, died Sunday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Axel Anderson, in Grand Rapids. Survivors include five sons, Glenn and Kenneth of Lansing, Dale of Belding, Hubert of Detroit, and Judson of Flint; two daughters, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Velma Stark, also of Grand Rapids; 19 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at the Belding Free Methodist church Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock, in charge of the Fitzjohn funeral home.

John W. Wright
John W. Wright, 52, of 523 Community st., died at a local hospital Tuesday. He was born June 17, 1898, at Phillips, Wis., and had lived in Lansing for the past 30 years. He had been employed by the Motor Wheel corporation during that time. Surviving are the widow, Burdella Arlene; two daughters, Mrs. Norman Richards and Beverly Ann Wright; two sons, Wesley Wright, Jr., and Robert Alton Wright, and a granddaughter, Lynn Marie Richards, all of Lansing, and one brother, Claude Wright of Charlotte. Funeral services will be held from the Gorsline-Runciman funeral home at 2 p. m. Thursday. Interment will be in Deepdale cemetery.

Funeral Services Friday For Coast Guard Member

(Special to The State Journal)
CHARLOTTE, Nov. 22—Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. from the Pray funeral home for Ward Charles Malcuit, 26, a former Charlotte resident, who was a cook second class in the U. S. coast guard and who was instantly killed in an auto accident Monday near Gladstone. He was born Oct. 27, 1924, in Charlotte, the son of Charles and Bertha Ward Malcuit. Surviving are the parents in Sunfield township; a sister, Mrs. Raymond Snyder of Charlotte; two brothers, Leo of Charlotte and Bruce at home; the maternal grandfather, Frank Ward of R. 5, Charlotte, and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Clara Malcuit of Battle Creek. Rev. George Whiteman of Vermontville will officiate. Burial will be in Maple Hill cemetery.

Charles A. Griffin
SUNFIELD, Nov. 23—Charles A. Griffin, 73, former Sunfield baseball player, died in Macomb County hospital Tuesday. He had lived in Centerline for the past several years. He was born in Carmel township, Eaton county, the son of Belle and Peter Griffin. He married Nettie L. Jackson March 20, 1901. His wife was killed in an automobile accident in February, 1935. He is survived by the daughter, Mrs. Verna Price, Centerline; one son, Carl, Detroit; two sisters, Mrs. Blanche Childs, Detroit, and Mrs. Cora Cure, Sunfield, and two grandchildren, Arthur, Port-land, Ore., and Oren, Sunfield. Funeral services will be held from the Mapes funeral home Friday at 2 p. m. Rev. Don Carrick will officiate. Burial will be in Sunfield cemetery.

Jay P. Bisel

Jay Bisel, 60, 1909 Beal st., died Thursday at a Lansing hospital. Mr. Bisel had been a resident of Lansing for the past 43 years and had been employed at Oldsmobile for 17 years. Surviving besides the widow, Jennie M. Bisel, is one son, Delbert of Nashville, Mich.; a daughter, Mrs. Flynn-Janousek of Charlotte; the father, Bert Bisel of Charlotte; three grandchildren and two brothers, Everett and Ernest Bisel, both of Lansing.

en ame
second time 1921-
amend ould b
n first
e five
house,
filing
s car
nal pre
ve days
sion t
he ti
nce to s not origin
oduce
is no
posse
at le
third
le. A
of
at s its fore
paker
ules
poin
and
ave
y obj
suspe
ter t offere
nive
unt
er wi
be do
rder
thou
good of the ide to
mad
he rul
ous qu
t a r
son
was
speak te and
same d
been
n. T nce or
of order
mical
placed
ever, t
may be minority
—H. J.

passed.
not being a second
lentionally
bill to be applied.
action.
in positions.—
Sec. 22
J. 1913,
actice of
se other
he house
passage
ise until
e action
it passed
of order
d house
bsequent nittee of the bill s simply
titution;
fore the
ot being action of
and no
special e should
n state-
n doing
se. The
in the proper
and for
and not cedence
le, and he same
taken.—
ay vote s made tion to
The
ng the
or the refore,
ruled