

Saturday p m at 2:00 o'clock, Rev. Parsons assisted by Rev. Street of Mackinaw, Ill., officiating. Interment at Woodlawn.

Dr. and Mrs. Green were earnest workers in the Congregational church in every department, and will be greatly missed for the place they filled is empty. For many years they were members of the church choir, and their beautiful soprano and tenor voices will be missed. Everywhere their lives stood for Christian character and for those things which are noblest and best.

STATE DEATHS

Vernard R. Wyble

CHARLOTTE—Vernard R. Wyble, 70, and a life-long resident of Eaton county, died at his residence in Kalamo township at 10 a. m. Saturday, after a long illness. He was a farmer, and a resident of Kalamo township for 15 years. He was born March 9, 1879, in Eaton county, the son of Anthony and Amy (Briggs) Wyble. He is survived by his wife, Lillian; and two sisters, Mrs. Bertha Day of Bellevue township and Mrs. Florence Baker of Carmel township, Eaton county. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday from the Pray Funeral home in Charlotte, conducted by Christian Science Reader Mrs. Pearl Johnson. Burial will be in Kalamo cemetery.

Mrs. Martha Rawson, aged 92 years, passed away about five o'clock Friday evening at the home of her son Fred north of town after ailing for about a year and a half. Deceased was one of the highly esteemed ladies of the community and will be greatly missed by her relatives and a wide circle of friends. Six sons and three daughters survive. Funeral services were conducted at her late home Tuesday afternoon by Rev. Robert Dalzell and the remains were laid to rest in Woodlawn cemetery.

—S. W. Oviatt, State Representative for a quarter century. See No. 109.

123. A motion to reconsider a vote by which the bill was indefinitely postponed was held out of order.

Under the practice in American legislative assemblies, motion to indefinitely postpone is to suppress or reject

Rites Wednesday

REV. ROY V. STARR

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. in Springfield, Ill., for Mr. Starr, former Lansing pastor, who was killed in an automobile accident Sunday while on his way to a preaching appointment. He was district superintendent of the Illinois district, Church of the Nazarene. The services Wednesday will be held at the First Church of the Nazarene in Springfield.

Dr. Starr made his home in Lansing for more than 20 years while he served as pastor of Lansing First Church of the Nazarene and as district superintendent of the Michigan district.

He leaves the widow, three daughters, Mrs. Harold D'Arcy of East Lansing, and Mrs. John Strahl and Mrs. Urey Arnold of Illinois; five brothers, William Lloyd of Lapeer, Mich., Leigh of Phoenix, Ariz.; Clinton of Snover, Mich., Roland of Illinois, and Arthur, of 1110 Oak st., Lansing, and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Stevens of Capac, Mich., and Miss Marian Starr of Detroit.

Burial will be at Vicksburg, Mich. The body will lie in state at the Rupert funeral home there on Thursday from 12 noon to 2 p. m.

DECISIONS.

of a concu not properly te point of land had tal the house a he considera considered the rule, t at arms of t the senate w raised that the tion was in tion), p. 11. n that the re the payment urgent-at arms n of the sena r, for the rea point was hel of the senate in the organi te services w it to be the uly law was A point of o senators ch decision was s rent resolution ss the opinion was in orde to adjourn, he ut it had ch the so, whole, rel face of it been mad nate rule the tabi red. Thi gn of reco reconsider the rule of an ar ing. One der that rected the re actual the roll, an

for a quor