Obituary

Jesse Amos Green was born June 21, 1876 at Vermontville, Michigan and departed this life June 5, 1950 at the age of 73 years 11 mo. and 14 days. He was the son of Catherine M. and James L. Green. He was a life long resident of Eaton County and was born in the house on West First St. now owned by Charles Collier.

In 1896 he was united in marriage to Eva J. Clem of Vermontville.

All his life he was a farmer until 1937 when ill health compelled him to sell the farm. His favorite sport being hunting and fishing he spent five years at Duck Lake. His remaining years were spent in a house on West First St. he purchased from Robert Childs.

He has been faithfully attended by is son Dr. L. J. Green of Lansing and the other children assisted him with their love and care.

He will be remembered by all who knew him as a kind loving husband, father and friend. Always willing to share any possession and always trying to lighten the burdens of others. He came to the close of a useful life with the same smile and kind word or all that had characterized him through his life.

The many lovely floral tributes showed the love and esteem in which he was held by his relatives and friends. He was laid to rest in the family lot at Woodlawn cemetery.

He leaves to mourn their loss besides the widow Eva Six children, three sons, Dr. Lowell Green of Lansing, Phillip and Stanley of Vermontville. Three daughters, Mrs. Ada Rawson of Addison, Mrs. DeEtta Dove, Battle Creek and Mrs. Roberta Mead of Vermontville. Two sisters, Mrs. Winnie Sprague. Mrs. Alice Barningham, Two brothers, Phillips of Sunfield, Albert of Charlotte, 21 grandchildren and eight greatgrandchildren.
