and ran over him.

Funeral Thursday

Perry Rites Planned for Mrs. Stevens, Children

(Special to The State Journal) PERRY, Jan. 17-Funeral services will be held Thursday for Mrs. Elea nor Stevens and her three daugh-ters, in the Congregational church here, where she was married in his 1945

Mrs. Stevens and the children itu were killed in an automobile acci-dent Sunday near Leslie. The husband and father, Veer Stevens, is in fair condition in Edward W. Spar-led row hospital, Lansing. He was se-led riously injured in the accident.

the church, will officiate, and burial there with wagon and ox team, arriving in the church, will officiate, and burial there with wagon and ox team, arriving in the constraint of the church and burial Gar-matrix Eaton county in October, 1837, and a condens, Owosso. Mrs. Stevens was a aker settling in Roxand township, then a r of the church and here the church and Survivors include ther, Nelson Rogers, and a brother as pas wagon and horse teams, the journey words Gordon Rogers, all of Lansing.

Any m explain the matter, and hay hardships and privatious of a pioneer on may Dead Body Found in Road. . While driving home in his automobile about 9:30 o'clock Tuesday night the headlights of Lynn Mosier's machine reflected the lifeless body of in Glenn Steves lying face downward in the road a short distance north of the river bridge. The young man had my been about town in the early evening and started for his home about 8:30 olclock and as he had not complained of fillness, appearing in his usual health, it is thought that an attack of heart trouble, to which he was subject, came upon him while proceeding on his way. The condition of the body indicated that death had been instan-1taneous. He had undoubtedly been walking along in the darkness when 12 stricken and fell forward without warning, his face still resting in the wagon track when the body was found.

Mr. Mosier immediately notified people about town and with the assistance of Dr. McLaughlin, Village Marshall Faust and several others the body was removed to the home of the young man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mvron Steves, For Crash Victims just across the bridge. "Hon" Steves. as he was familiarly known about town, was about 26 years of age, an industrious young fellow and well liked by a large circle of friends, plain reading Besides his parents he is survived by e for a great two brothers, Bert and Charles Steves, option of the and one sister, Mrs. Fred Rawson Jr. ough the conve repeatedly ion six WILLIAM DOW

- TIME DI

William Dow, son of the late John refused Dow, Sr., was born May 26, 1827, in the mean Somerville, N. J. At the age of five n of the aken in years his parents moved to Seneca resolu county, N. Y. He well remembered when they moved from the east to Michigan when he was a boy of 10 | by the Rev. Duncan Olmstead, pastor of these years old. They came all the way with wagon and ox team, arriving in ification member of the church and her chil-is vo dren were baptized there. The bod- $\frac{1}{3}$ no pending the services. Setting in Roxant township, then a to the dense forest clearing a spot and put- it ques-ting up a log shanty, he helping his ested. father to clear the land for cultiva- ter the services. Scheme tion, remaining at home until April, that he settling in Roxand township, then a c of the reheas tion, remaining at home until April, that he Survivors include Mrs. Stevens)r has 1852, when he with 19 others started mother, Mrs. Flossie Rogers, her fainced, for California, going overland with ther, Nelson Rogers and a bushest for California, going overland with

In that early day he again endured it least in life. Indians were troublesome and he joined a company of volunteers her his WEDNESDAY, JAN. 5, 191(and fought battles with them until esident they were subdued and made peaceful. He had several escapes from dready death. In 1858 he came to Michigan cer, in on a visit. Returning he made the journey the second time overland recom-with teams. In 1887 he again came ppeal, home on a visit and on July 14 was married to Mrs. Juliette Sprague Dunton. Soon after he with his bride inflist returned to Susanville, Cal. After living there a few years they moved rect. to Pacific Grove, Cal., where he died _{flution}

September 1st, 1918. He was a mem-ber of the M. E. church. Faithful, to a loyal and true he was to the church imend and to his God. In his severe suffer- notion ing was shown a Christian spirit of be a love and patient submission. after He leaves besides his widow, two stepdaughters, Mrs. Sol Nathan of Oakland, Cai., and Mrs. John Lake of Nashville; two aged sisters, Mrs. Catharine Spalding, Merrillville, Cal., and Mrs. Susan Loomis, Vermontville, in d and many other relatives. Funeral services held at his home ch conducted by his pastor, Rev. Frank to

K. Baker, with interment in Carmel cemetery.

ter the

eld a United

the conwhose