Will L. Bush

Will L. Bush, 73 years old, died Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock at the residence, 516 Pearl street, after an illness of seven months. He was born April 29, 1877, in OTING Hamlin township, a son of Charlie and Eliza (Collins) Bush.

Mr. Bush had been a resident of Charlotte -for 47 years and was a retired taxi driver and rural mail carrier. He was married September, 1898, to Miss Grace Coats. They observed their golden wedding in 1948.

Surviving are the widow: four daughters, Mrs. Evah Olmstead of icted of infamous crumes s of penal institutions. s convicted of felony. idiots, paupers and y or unable to read or w Jackson, Mrs. Norma Cook of Lan sing, Mrs. Bethel Stilwell of Ovid and Mrs. Eula Cooley of Charlotte; a son, Charles Bush, of Charlotte; 11 grandchildren; two brothers, Jay and Fred Bush of Eaton Rapids, and a sister, Mrs. Roy Holmes of Clawson.

Services will be held this Friday convicte Inmates of Persons co Insane, id felony o afternoon at two o'clock at the Burkhead chapel. Eld. H. N. Williams of Frankfort, Ind., is to officiate. Burial will be in the Clarence Center cemetery in Calhoun county

Burley Swift

Burley W. Swift, 74 years old, died Saturday at the residence, 951 North Sheldon street, following a seven-months' illness. He was born April 9, 1876, in Kalamo township, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Swift, and had been a lifelong resident of Eaton county. In 1910 he was married to Hazel L. Oles. Besides the widow there survive five daughters, Mrs. Annabell Lindsey of Grand Rapids and Misses Verl M., Mary L., Sarah A. and Leora, and four sons, George, Benjamin B., Wendell and Victor, all of Charlotte; three sisters, Mrs. Addie B. nedict and Mrs. Maude Corey, of Vermontville, and Mrs. Mae Scott of Lansing, and a brother, 50 Arthur Swift of Vermontville, and four grandchildren and a host of nieces' and nephews. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 1:30, o'clock at the Burkhead chapel. Rev. A. G. Hetherington officiated. Burial was in Woodlawn cemestery, Vermontville.

Frank W. Robinson

Frank W. Robinson, who would have been 63 next month, one of a family of seven children born to the late Samuel and Rosa Whitcomb Robinson, died Sunday evening in the Hayes-Green-Beach hospital, where he had been a patient less than a day. Mr. Robinson had been out of health for some time but managed to keep on his work until about two weeks before his passing. He was a native son of Charlotte and lived in the city practically all his life, except for a time in his early life when he was associated with leading Kalamazoo hotels. He had been an inspector for the Michigan Public Service Commission for a dozen years and Secretary S. A. Lund, Chief In-spector Clare McWhorter and a dozen other executives and inspectors of the department were here for the funeral service held Tuesday afternoon at Burkhead's Chapel. Fellow inspectors served as pall bearers. He was a member of the Congregational church and his pastor, Rev. Richard Hunter, was the clergyman. In addition to his widow, Edith Southerton Robin-son, he leaves a sister, Mrs. Murl H. DeFoe, and a brother, Lawrence Robinson. Interment at Maple Hill.

Ξ.

convicted persons write.

da

Mrs. Edward Kline

Clara O. Hubbard, daughter of Jeanette and Robert Hubbard, was born in Chester township, Eaton county on Dec. 28, 1883. She departed this life at her Carmel township farm home of over 42 years on August 30, 1950.

On Oct. 4, 1906, she was united in marriage to Edward C. Kline. Four children came to bless this home, Mrs. Irvin Boyles (Maxine) of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; George, on a nearby farm; Mrs. Harold Byrd (Hortense) of Lansing and Frank of Charlotte.

During her long years of residence in Carmel township, she was ever found to be a kind, loving neighbor and friend. Her cheer ful unselfishness and desire to do her part in the home and community won her a multitude of friends. She was an active member of the East Carmel Sunshine club and served as the capable president in 1949.

Surviving are the husband, children, six grandchildren and two brothers, Robert Hubbard of Colorado and Jean Hubbard of Charlotte.

The funeral service was held at the Pray funeral home on Saturday, Sept. 2, at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Marjorie Hawkins. The beautiful floral pieces attested to the love and esteem of a departed friend.

She was laid to rest in the family lot at the Gresham cemetery.

Ily lot at the Gresham cemetery. MULLIKEN, Sept. 14—David Boyer. 69. died Wednesday morning at the home in Whiteville, following a long illness. He was well known in this community hav-ing lived here most of his life. Surviv-ing are the widow. Maude: four step-daughters. Mrs. Eva Wallace of Lansing. Mrs. Beulah Baldwin and Miss Eugenia Rouser of Mulliken, and Mrs. Katherine LaCrox of Detroti: five stepsons. Wil-liam. Hersel. Maynard, and John Rouser of Lansing, and Kenneth Rouser serving with the U.S. army: three sisters. Mrs. Root of R. 6. Oharlotte, and Mrs. Alloe Gilson of Chelsea: and a brother, Carl Boyer of Mulliken. The body was re-

36