

In early years she united with the Methodist church. Her interest in Christian leadership was shown by teaching Sunday school classes whenever her health permitted. She was always interested in the spiritual welfare of young people. Throughout her life her highest aim was to be of service to others.

She is survived by her husband; ten children, John of Lansing, Ashley of Vermontville, Mrs. Robe (Mrs. Polhamus) of Charlotte, Josephine George, Herbert, Mable and Arthur at home; a sister, Mrs. P. Ebaugh of Milan.

Funeral services were held at the Vermontville Methodist church with the Rev. Ralph M. Dean of Wayland officiating, assisted by the Rev. George E. Whiteman. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery, Vermontville.

Guy Lake Succumbs Wednesday

Guy A. Lake, 73, passed away at a Battle Creek hospital Wednesday morning following a serious operation.

He is survived by the wife Elizabeth of 196 East First St., Vermontville, one sister, Mrs. Nina Statton of Tulsa, Oklahoma, several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 P. M. from the Ward Funeral Home. Rev. Loren Lee of Nashville officiating, with burial in Lakeside cemetery, Lake Odessa beside his parents.

(Special to The State Journal)

VERMONTVILLE, June 29 — Guy A. Lake, a resident of Vermontville for the past 15 years and former owner of Lake's Tavern here, died in a Battle Creek hospital Wednesday following surgery. He was born in Kalamazoo county Sept. 20, 1876, the son of Charles R. and Alice Barton Lake. Surviving are the widow, Elizabeth; a sister, Mrs. Nina Statton of Tulsa, Okla., and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Ward funeral home here. Rev. Lorne Lee of Nashville officiating. Burial will be in Lakeside cemetery, Lake Odessa. Mr. Lake had been a member of the Richmond Lodge F. & A. M. for the past 30 years. Services at the cemetery will be under the direction of Vermontville Lodge 232, F. & A. M.

Frank Mapes

Frank M. Mapes, 74, died suddenly on Memorial Day at his home in Sunfield after a short illness.

Born in Sebewa, Ionia Co. April 19, 1876, the son of Antionette and Alfred Mapes. He was married to Ellen Bishop June 28, 1899, they having celebrated their golden wedding last year at the home of Jack Mapes, with over two hundred friends in attendance.

MICHI

Mapes was a veteran salesman whose tire life being engaged in business in various lines of work he never tired. At the age of fifteen he began clerking in a general store at Sebewa, for F. N. Cornell, later accepting an offer as traveling salesman for the American Wire and Steel Co. of Buffalo, New York, whom he served for two years.

After a short vacation he accepted a position with the International Harvester Co. of Chicago, serving thirty-two years until retiring with many credits to his honor. At the time of his death he was employed by the Mapes Furniture Co.

One son, Wayne, preceded him in death, in Kalamazoo in 1909. Surviving are his wife, Ellen, and son, Ronald, of Chicago; one grandson, Howard, of Grand Rapids, his brother, Harry Mapes of Sunfield; four nieces, Mrs. Mildred Maher, Mrs. Dorothy Dawd of Detroit, Mrs. Lois Beenbrooks of Bozeman, Montana; Mrs. Gretchen O. Toole, Sunfield; five nephews, Clarence, Carroll, and Eugene Mapes of Stockton, California; Jack and Larry Mapes of Sunfield.

Funeral services were held Friday at the Mapes Funeral home, largely attended by friends from many parts of the state. Honorary pallbearers were friends from the International Harvester Co. office and territory, Grand Rapids, and casket bearers were relatives of the family.

Rev. Harold Armen officiated with Rev. Field assisting. Interment in the Sunfield cemetery.

Frank H. Thrun, Vermontville, Dies

Vermontville— Frank H. Thrun, 73, Vermontville township farmer for the last 52 years, died Thursday at his home on Vermontville R2.

He formerly was a rural mail carrier and was Vermontville township highway commissioner in the middle '30's.

Surviving are his wife, Mae; three sons, Martin, Lawrence and Carl, all of Vermontville; three daughters, Mrs. Carter Brumm of Vermontville, Mrs. Wayne Miller of Lansing and Mrs. Ralph Sherk of Hastings, and three brothers, Albert, Fred and Edward, all of Fremont, Ohio.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 Sunday at the Congregational church here. Burial in Woodlawn cemetery.

Floyd G. Cr... Theodore T...

Joseph L. De... Parker

Karl K. Lebraund... Parker

Hastings... Bay City... Beulah

Beulah