GEN. BOOTH.

HARTSDALE, N. Y., July 18 (AP)-Gen. Evangeline Booth, retired commander of the world-wide Salvation Army, died yesterday at the age of 84.

V ....

She had been ill for more than a year and spent the last few days before her death in a coma.

She was born in London on Christmas Day, 1865, the same year her father, Gen. William Booth, founded the Army. She grew up with the organization and her lifetime almost exactly paralleled its growth.

As a little child she followed her father's footsteps as he preached in the slums of London—and was preaching there herself when only in her teens.

Later she carried the Army's work into Canada and the United States. She became an American citizen and was leader of the Army in the United States for 30 years.
