Heart Attack Is Fatal to MW Man

Unexpected Attack Takes Life of L. B. Gillies

Funeral services for Lincoln B. Gillies, 46, Plant No. 2 employe, were held April 19 at the Palmer-Bush Funeral Home. Burial was in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Mr. Gillies who had been employed here since November 16, 1936, died unexpectedly of a heart attack April 17 as he was preparing to start work at Plant No. 2.

Mr. Gillies

A former resident of Calumet, Mr. Gillies worked in a number of departments at Plant No. 1 when he first came to Motor Wheel, but spent most of his time in the Steel Wheel Assembly Department until he was assigned to the Plant No. 2 Press Room during World War II. Following cessation of hostilities he returned to the Steel Wheel

Assembly Department and re-
