

ber of that church.

She lived a life of prayer and faith, and had ever on her heart the burden for a lost world that needed her All-sufficient Savior. She never neglected nor shrunk from anything which she believed to be her duty as a Christian. Her love for everyone manifested itself in kindly acts for all those around her. She visited the sick, sent Christian literature to those whom she hoped would be helped by it, and prayed continually for the up-building of the Kingdom of Christ.

She is survived by her husband, Harvey Hawkins; her two sons, Harvey Ray and Hector Bradley, both of Lansing; two grandsons and six granddaughters; three sisters, Miss Hannah Bradley and Mrs. James Metcalfe of Beachburg, Ont., and Mrs. Rev. A. A. Caswell of China.

Funeral was at the M. E. Church on Feb. 19th, the Rev. DeLong, F. M. pastor at Hoyville preaching. Burial was at the Freemire cemetery.

While our hearts are full of longing
For the loved one we have lost,
And we fain would keep her with us
In this world so tempest tossed;
Still we know that she is happy
And that all her trials are past,
She has gone to be with Jesus,
She is safe at Home at last.

Now she walks the streets of heav'n,
Greeting loved ones gone before;
Meets and greets her blessed Savior,
Learns to love Him more and more;
Basks within His smile of welcome,
Hears His loving words "Well done,"
Sings His praises without tiring,
In a new and heavenly tongue.

So, although our hearts are lonely,
And we shall miss her here,
We joy in her sweet triumph
And dry the falling tear.
We long to carry on the Work
That she has loved so long;
And when our work on earth is done,
We'll join her glory song.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all those who by flowers, help in the home, and kind words and acts expressed their sympathy in our recent bereavement, to those who cleared the roads and the drive to the cemetery.

Mr. Harvey Hawkins and family

Funeral services for Cpl. Delbert N. Greive, former Motor Wheel employe, were held here August 4. Story on page two.

Ralph Wiggins Funeral To Be Held Monday

SUNFIELD, Oct. 8—Funeral services for Ralph S. Wiggins, 61, farmer and former postmaster here, who died Friday morning, will be held at 2 p. m. Monday at the Mapes funeral home. Rev. Don Carrick of the United Brethren church, will officiate, and burial will be in St. Johns cemetery.
Mr. Wiggins had been a resident of this area for 34 years, during several of which he was a merchant and Sunfield postmaster. Death was due to a heart attack.
He is survived by the widow, Ver-nice; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Davis, Mulliken, and a grandson, Douglas Davis.

Mrs. Sam Robinson

Mrs. Carrie Robinson, 75 years old, of 319 Johnson street, died Sunday at a Kalamazoo hospital. She was born July 10, 1874, in Brookfield township, daughter of Marcus and Medora Hall, and was a resident of this locality all her life. She was the widow of Sam Robinson, former postmaster and state fire marshal, who passed away January 30, 1947.
There survive three daughters, Miss Dolores Robinson of Charlotte, Mrs. James Crays of Lansing and Mrs. William Bunge of Laural, Maryland; a son, Frank H. Robinson of Charlotte, and a brother, Ernest Hall of Lansing.
Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock

IC
T FE
No.
Age
1
7
3
2
1
2
5
10
1
17
5
13
5
2
2
5
1
6
8
5
7
3
3
20
1
6
3
5
6
13
6
20
8
2
4
4
10
12
25
1
1
1,3

M vi p
so