

ed their 60th wedding anniversary, the recipients of flowers, letters, cards, calls and telephone greetings from friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Grant was a life-long member of the Kalamo Methodist church, having joined at the age of thirteen, she and her husband sang in the choir for fifty years. She was a charter member of the Kalamo Woman's club and also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star.

She was interested in all Kalamo activities throughout her life.

In addition to her husband she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Long of Ann Arbor, a son, Dr. Carroll W. Grant of Rockville Center, Long Island, four grandchildren, Robert and Douglas Long and Linda and David Grant, one great grandchild, Barbara Long and a brother, Joseph C. Wilson of Grand Rapids. The host of friends of the past eighty years mourn the passing of this pioneer woman.

Illness Fatal

Associated Press Wirephoto
MRS. SUMNER WELLES
Succumbs in Switzerland

Deaths

Edson Huss

Edson Huss, 74, died at his home, 1514 W. Jolly rd., Tuesday. He was born in Ionia county, April 12, 1875, and had been a resident of Lansing and community for the past 29 years, following the carpenter trade. He is survived by the widow, Maude; three sons, Lyman and Eldon of Lansing and Leo Huss of Springfield, O.; a daughter, Mrs. Wayne Ryal of Lansing; eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren; a brother, Storrs Huss of Ionia, and a sister, Mrs. Carrie Jacobs of Ionia. Funeral services will be held from the Gorsline-Runciman funeral home Friday at 2:30 p. m. Interment will be in Deepdale cemetery.

Elwood Parr Wheaton

Elwood Parr Wheaton was born August 27, 1911, in Chester township and passed away July 30, 1949 at the University hospital at Ann Arbor. He attended Charlotte high school and graduated with the class of 1931.

He was active in 4-H club work for 10 years. It was through his club work that he became recognized as one of the leading pure bred Hampshire sheep breeders in the country. He was premier sheep breeder of Michigan for 10 years.

He leaves to mourn his departure from this life the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Wheaton; one brother, Verness Wheaton; two sisters, Mrs. Hildred Ainsworth, Mrs. Dolores Cole; one niece, four nephews and a grandmother, Mrs. Mary Parr, besides a host of relatives and friends.

Pallbearers were Lee Bell, Shepherd at the college, East Lansing; Graydon Blank, sheep specialist also at the college, East Lansing; Burt Jackman, Croswell, Mich.; Joe Bauer, Martin Garn and Herbert Ames, all of Charlotte.

Was President of Maple Hill Cemetery and Director of Eaton County Savings

Fred S. Beach, who was born on a Barry county farm in 1870 and from this humble beginning arose to national stature in the highway culvert manufacturing business, died Tuesday at 5 p. m. He had been out of health for weeks, and his death had been hourly expected for several days.

REPRE
IVES—

Celi
Nell
Jam
Are Fra
Geo
Ma
Ros
Het
Joh
Dav
Geo

Seco
Ro
Fr
He
M.

Thir
W
M
Louis
Geo

Four
Fre
Dw
Ma
Fifth
H.
Ed
644

174