

Mrs. Bob Griswold Dies in Iowa

Vermontville,
June 20th

Mr. Editor:

We were all packed in ready to begin the homeward trek today when a phone call yesterday told us that Bob's (Griswold) wife had died the night before and would we stay over to plan the funeral here.

Alice has not been well since Christmas and has failed rapidly since we left Portland two months ago, so a month ago Judy, her daughter went out to Corvallis and brought her mother back to Iowa City, Iowa, where her husband is taking his master's degree in Elec. Eng. at the University, thinking the change would do her mother good, but she has failed rapidly since. The funeral will be at our little Congregational Church on Thursday morning at 10:30 with Rev. Don Nagel, a life-time friend, officiating. (Both Bob and Alice joined the church here.)

Two of the sons, William and Robert Jr. will fly here and the daughter and her husband, Major and Mrs. Joseph Dillon will drive from Iowa City. Philip, the other son, will not come. He will be with his Dad.

We shall be pleased to have you make notice in the paper.

Facts.

Alice Predmore born in Cass City, came to teach in 1908, and married Robert Loring Griswold in 1909. They went to Oregon in 1911 and have lived in Corvallis the last 20 years.

Survived by Bob, and the four children mentioned above, William (named for Papa), Judith, Mrs. Joseph Dillon, Robert Loring, Jr., and Philip Graham.

Ernest A. Hartwell

Ernest A. Hartwell, a highly respected resident of Kalamo township, died at his home June 22, 1949, after rather a long period of ill health. He was the son of Frank and Sarah Jane Hartwell, born in Saline, Mich., and came with his parents when three years of age, to the farm and has lived his entire life here.

He is survived by his wife, Bessie, one son, Dell; also a brother, Seymour Hartwell, living near, and two sisters, Miss Amy Hartwell and Mrs. Mamie Young near Charlotte. He was a kind and affectionate husband and father, a good neighbor and friend.

Funeral services were held at the Hess funeral home in Nashville, Saturday at 2 o'clock with the Rev. C. A. Bisbighauser of the Nashville Evangelical church officiating.

Ernie was a great lover of his home and family and enjoyed doing his work in the best manner possible. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

Those attending the funeral from away were: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ruggles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruggles of Norwalk, Mrs. Chas. Feitchner of Willard, O., Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Humphrey, Miss Helen Humphrey of Battle Creek, Mrs. Chas. D. Miller and Mrs. Carl Sprinkle of Eaton Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Satterly, Mrs. W. D. Dickinson, Miss Edith Dickinson and Mrs. Floyd Mason of Charlotte.

Clifford C. Ward, last publisher of the Charlotte Tribune, has retired as active publisher of the Sierra Madre, Calif., News because of illness. Mrs. Ward also has temporarily retired as editor of the News. As a result their son, Peter Ward, formerly manager, has been named managing editor, and Arthur Hewitt, formerly political editor, has been designated as editor, with Mary Toms Ward and three others as associate editors. Loran Perry is mechanical superintendent.
