

April 7, 1932 she was united in marriage to Harvey Hawkins of Vermontville. After a few short years of happy wedded life he passed away August 13, 1936. Since that time she has spent most of the time alone in her home. Jesus was very precious to her in those years of loneliness. Some one has added that she went to her Heavenly Home June 11, 1949 at the age of 83 years.
