VERMONTVILLE, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1949

WELLINGTON BARNES

Wellington Barnes, oldest living son of Newell and Emma Cooley Barnes, was born May 7, 1871, in Delta township, and passed away February 13th, 1949, at the age of 77 years, 9 months and 6 days.

When he was four years old his parents moved to the Barnes school district, south of Vermontville where he lived for 38 years. On August 20, 1895 he was united in marriage to Miss Grace Worden of Vermontville and to this union two sons were born. Thirty years ago he, with his family moved to the present farm home northeast of town, where he was actively engaged in farming until the last few years.

He is survived by the widow, Grace, the two sons, Luban A. and Alton K., and the grandson, Gaylord; two sisters, Mrs. Erma Wall and Mrs. Myrtle Means, both of Grand Ledge; nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held at the Ward Funeral Home in Vermontville at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon, Rev. D. D. Nagle officiating. Burial was at the Lakeview Cemetery, Nashville. The bearers were all his neighbors: Allis Baker, Sylvester Wohlscheid, Clyde Fox, Glenn Satterlee, Clarence Koob and Curtis Rockafellar.

L. G. COLE SUFFERED HEART ATTACK SUNDAY MORNING

Lionel G. Cole, 51, passed away of a heart attack Sunday morning. He had been a resident of this village for the past ten months, when he purchased the Mathews grocery and moved into town from W. Vermontville. He had been caring for the Methodist Church and went down early to build the fire and later accompanied by his youngest daughter Rachel, to ring the first bell. Norma Hammond was there to practice the morning music, and he told them he had not been feeling well all night, and requested she play a favorite hymn, and was seated in a pew and was stricken, as he bent over to adjust the furnace register. Dr. Kelsey was called but Mr. Cole had passed away. His body was removed to the Ward Funeral Home.

Mr. Cole was a highly respected citizen, always interested in the better things of the community, and will be greatly missed by people of all ages. He was friendly and had many friends.

He was a former resident of Hastings and Nashville.

Funeral services are being held at 2:30 today at the church, with burial at Riverside Cemetery, Hastings.
