Former Lansingite Dies at Bridgeman

(Special to The State Journal)
 VERMONTVILLE, Sept. 26 —

Funeral services for Loy D. Kroger, 46, former Lansingite, will be held Monday at 2 p. m. from the Otto funeral home in Vermontville. Rev. D. A. Rood will officiate with burial in Woodlawn cemetery.

Mr. Kroger was found fatally wounded with a rifle in his hands at his home in Bridgeman Friday where he had moved recently. Members of the family said he had suffered a stroke this spring and was despondent over it. He had only recently been allowed to go back to work.

He was employed as a tool maker in Lansing and later operated a tavern in Lake Odessa. The Krogers had moved to Bridgeman a week ago to assume management of a motel there.

Surviving are the widow, Veva; a step-daughter, Mrs. Gordon Odor of Algona, Ia.; one step-son, Norman Weiler of Lansing; his mother, Mrs. Alec Gimmell of Lansing; two sisters, Mrs. Carl Palmer of Detroit and Mrs. Elmer Betts of Charlotte.
