

JOHN S. TYLER NEARLY 90 PASSED AWAY JANUARY 20

John Stilwell Tyler Jr. was born in Kalamo Township, Eaton County, Michigan on March 16th, 1859, and passed away at the home of his son Arthur G. Tyler near Hastings, Michigan, on January 20, 1949.

He was the son of John Stilwell Tyler Sr. and his wife Mary Ann Marriott Tyler. When he was three years old, his mother passed away and his father later married Elizabeth Jefferies, who for many years was a mother to her husband's children.

John S. Tyler Jr., whom we mourn today, was always kind and thoughtful of others. He was energetic, a good neighbor and looked on the bright side of life. When a young man he joined the Methodist church of Kalamo, Michigan, and he lived a christian life. Later he transferred his membership to Vermontville Methodist church.

In October, 1895 he married Miss Ella Odell of Allegan, Michigan. She died in April, 1901. The two children of their marriage were from that time on first in their father's affections and in his plans. They are Arthur G. Tyler of Hastings, and Mrs. Martha E. Tyler Chadwick of Tarpon Springs, Fla., who now mourn his loss. They have both been devoted in the care of their father in his later years. For seven months he has lived in his son's home, where he has had constant attention and loving care.

Mr. Tyler was always fond of children and his grandchildren and great grandchildren were dear to him. The grandchildren are Robert Tyler, Bonna Tyler, Mrs. Phyllis Tyler Johnson, Mrs. Ella Tyler Bliss, all of Hastings, and Arther Tyler Jr.—now in the Navy.

There are many great grandchildren who will miss their kind and smiling grandfather.

Of his four brothers and two sisters, one sister Mrs. Edith Tyler Wilson of South Haven remains.

John S. Tyler Jr. spent all but a few years of his life on the Tyler farm in Kalamo Township, Eaton County, which had belonged to his father before him. Last summer, when he could no longer look after it, the farm was sold. For a few years Mr. Tyler has lived in his home in the village of Vermontville. In the country and in the town, he leaves many friends to remember his kindness, courage and good cheer.

This tribute is written in loving remembrance by his sister Mrs. Edith Tyler Wilson.

Mr. Tyler's body was at the Ward els. Funeral Home, Vermontville, to ost prepare for burial and remained un- ets til Saturday at 2:00 p. m., when it was removed to the Methodist Church for the service at 2:30, con- to ducted by the pastor Rev. G. E. pts to White man. Miss Norma Hammond, to church pianist, presided at the piano. Mrs. Patty Dickey Foote sang to "Abide With Me", and "No Night is- There".

Burial was beside his wife in Kalamo cemetery.

The casket bearers were his neigh- id bors and former neighbors: L. W. er Loveland, T. D. Dancer, Marshall in- Hines, William Wright, Lester Beach and Edwin Ainsworth.

Arthur N. Cook, Plant No. 2 Tool Room employe, died recently fol- dng two lowing a short illness. Burial was cels ex- in Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens. Story on page one.

Teach me to lose my selfish need,
And glory in the larger deed,
Which smooths the road and lights
the day,
For all who chance to come my way.
—Edgar A. Guest