

HOMER SAWDY DIED SUNDAY

Homer Sawdy 77 died Sunday at Bradenton, Fla., after a short illness. He was a farmer and operator of a boat livery as his farm was located between Saddlebag and Carr lakes east of Woodland. Mr. Sawdy had planned to spend the winter in Florida and had left about a week prior to his death.

Surviving are a daughter Mrs. Pauline Rayner of Hastings, one son Leroy of Woodland, a sister Mrs. Flossie Pooler of Plymouth and three grand children.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Wing and Pickets funeral home at Woodland with burial in Woodland Memorial Cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Baker
VERMONTVILLE, Feb. 4.—Funeral services for Mrs. J. D. (Minnie) Baker, 91, a resident of Vermontville for 11 years, will be held Friday at 2 p. m. from the funeral chapel in Vermontville. Rev. D. J. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist church, will officiate. Burial will be made in Woodlawn cemetery, Vermontville. Mrs. Baker, a former resident of Middleville and Woodland, died Tuesday. She was born in Collingswood, Ontario, and became naturalized in 1837. Surviving are her son and daughter, H. Kendall of Jackson and Harry W. Morris of Keokuk, Iowa, two sisters, Mrs. Barbara Dunbar, Miss Fannie Brown, and one son, Frank Brown, all of Great Falls, and five grandchildren.

To Be Married to Escanaba Man

MISS EMILY MULL

The engagement of Miss Emily Mull to Roland J. Bird of Escanaba, son of Mrs. Sumner D. Bird of Stockbridge, was announced by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Mull; at a tea Sunday in their home, 20 Beech street, East Lansing.

Announce East Lansing Girl's Engagement

The announcement of wedding plans heads the week-end news. A tea in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Mull, 820 Beech street, East Lansing, Sunday afternoon, was the occasion for the engagement announcement of their daughter, Emily.

The date of her wedding to Roland J. Bird of Escanaba, son of Mrs. Sumner D. Bird of Stockbridge, was revealed in the table centerpiece. Two birds in a cage were seated on a swing with a white satin bow at the top labeled in gold letters, October 4. White gladioli encircled the cage.

Miss Mull greeted guests wearing a blue figured frock, accented at the shoulder with an American beauty colored lamella corsage. Standing with her were her mother, dressed in blue crepe, and Mrs. Bird, wearing dusty rose shadow crepe. Each had a corsage of gladioli.

One of Many State Picnics

Roy L. Herrington and Mrs. Herrington and Flossie Curtis of Reed City; Walter W. Straight and family of Ewart; Crystal Olan-Bowker of Leroy; G. F. Arndt of Ewart; L. W. Pace and George Somers of Maple River; and George Somers of Maple River.

Doyle Pierce Beckwith of Utica; Rhoda Hubbard Miller of Mt. Clemens; Carrie Wyman Heacock of Romeo.