

CROWNED EBI LEAGUE CAGE CHAMPIONS—Downing Delton, 31 to 30, Saturday, Coach Bob Gelina's Vermontville quintet, pictured above, won the Eaton-Barry-Ionia conference hardwood title. Pictured from left to right are: Kenneth Beardlee, Rudy Beystrum, Dale Briggs, Coach Gelina, Walter Vernon, Pete Townsend, Al Mix, Jack Cranson and Bruce Sledge. Beystrum was Vermontville High's hero Monday after tossing in the winning basket against Delton with but 30 seconds of playing time remaining in the game. The EBI champs have won 16 out of 18 court tussles this season. Their only defeats were at the hands of Sunfield and Bellevue, both extremely close battles.

MRS. ROY BROWN

Arlie Fuller Brown was born in Tecumseh, Nebraska, February 10, 1888; and passed away at the Hayes-Green-Beach Hospital, Charlotte, January 18th, 1949, after an illness of only a few days.

On December 19, 1914 she was united in marriage to Roy C. Brown. Besides the husband, she is survived by two sons, Frank of Olivet, and Clinton at home and one daughter, Mrs. Laura Landfair of Battle Creek; six grandchildren and her mother Mrs. Laura Fuller of Vermontville; three sisters, Mrs. Ona Hillman of Bronson, Kansas, Mrs. Mary Galloway of Glade, Kan. and Mrs. Nora Holland of Fairberry, requirement of the act of Congress, June 15, 1836. Those cases in which of Neb.; three brothers, Lon, Fred and Floyd of Ft. Dodge, Iowa. Her father, Frank Fuller preceded her in death 21 years ago, and one brother Allison five years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown had spent their entire married life around Vermontville, with the exception of twelve years in Iowa. Besides the relatives, she leaves to mourn their loss, a host of friends.

Funeral services were held Jan. 21st, 1949 from the Ward Funeral Home, at 2:00 p. m., Rev. D. D. Nagle officiating. Interment in Lakeview Cemetery at Nashville.