

The family of acknowledges with grateful appreciation your kind expression of sympathy

Motorcycle Crash Injures Two Here

Two persons were seriously injured in an automobile-motorcycle accident at the intersection of S. Pennsylvania ave. and Dexter rd. about 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

Injured were Eugene Vallincourt, 27, 1111 E. St. Joseph st., who received broken legs and a broken spine, and George F. Church, 36, 219 S. Clifford st., who had his left leg amputated at the knee and suffered chest injuries. Both accident victims were taken to Edward W. Sparrow hospital.

According to city police, the accident occurred when the motorcycle, driven by Church and traveling north on Pennsylvania ave., made a left turn at Dexter dr. The motorcycle collided with an automobile driven by William K. Post, 419 Strathmore rd. Post was not injured in the accident. Vallincourt was a passenger on the cycle.

*Your kindness and sympathy at this time
are more deeply appreciated than any word of thanks can ever express*

Mrs. Sarah L. Seitz, 75, Dies at Vermontville

(Special to The State Journal)
VERMONTVILLE, Sept. 1 — Mrs. Sarah L. Seitz, 75, died at 7:45 a. m. Sunday after a lingering illness at her home on Route 1. Born July 29, 1877, in Sunfield township, she spent her life in and near Vermontville. Surviving are the husband, Frank; two sons, Keith and Donald, Vermontville; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Prescott, Vermontville, and Mrs. Jessie Porter, Sunfield; a brother, Marion Duel, Greenville, and a granddaughter. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the Ward funeral home, conducted by the Rev. Marcius Taber of the Methodist church. Burial will be in Woodlawn cemetery.

Arthur Dow Passes Away

A large number of friends and relatives were present at the funeral service held for Arthur Dow, 70, who died last week. The service was held at the Ward Funeral home in Vermontville with burial in the Freemire cemetery near Sunfield.

Mr. Dow was a grandson of the veterans' supervisor, John Dow, who cleared and settled on the homestead, known today as Dow Corners, in 1837.

Born on April 5, 1881, Mr. Dow was the son of John and Harriet Bishop Dow and had spent his lifetime in the Sunfield and Vermontville areas.

He was married Dec. 4, 1904, to Mabel Wright of Vermontville, who surviving, they having spent the past 37 years on their farm in the Bismark district.

Mr. Dow died February 14. One son, Clair, preceded him in death in 1911 at the age of two.

Surviving, besides the widow, are two daughters, Mrs. Lucene Smith of Sunfield and Mrs. Louise Shipman of Vermontville, and three grandchildren.

Rev. Marcus Tabor of Vermontville officiated. Six nephews, Carl Dow, Kendall Dow, Richard Wright, Durwood Dow, Claud Van Blarcom, and Elwyn Dow were bearers.