

State Deaths

(Special to The State Journal)

Fred Andrew Bennett
CHARLOTTE, Feb. 8 — Fred Andrew Bennett, 72, died of a heart attack Monday at the residence, 521 Jefferson. He was born October 22, 1876, in Roxand township, the son of Edmond and Lucy Bennett. He was employed at the Wilcox-Gay Radio factory here and had been a resident of Charlotte for 20 years. Surviving are the widow, May; two sons, Bernie of Charlotte and Otto of Lansing, and a daughter, Mrs. Geraldine Smith of Charlotte. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday from the Pray funeral home. Rev. Vernon H. Beardsley will officiate. Burial will be in Maple Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Augusta C. Bennett
CHARLOTTE, Feb. 8—Mrs. Augusta C. Bennett, 89, died Monday at the residence in Kalamo township. She was born April 22, 1859, in Lenawee county, the daughter of Eli and Mary Jane Bowen, and was the widow of Charles Bennett, who died several years ago. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a. m. Thursday from the Pray funeral home. Burial will be in Teumseh cemetery.

O. J. McNaughton Dies Wednesday

Was Long Time Well Known Citizen of Mulliken Mrs. W. A. Vance, a Daughter

O. J. McNaughton, probably Mulliken's best known citizen, died Wednesday. The funeral will be held in the village Saturday at 3 p. m. He is survived by the widow and two sons, Major General Kenneth McNaughton of Washington, D. C., Lt. Colonel Franklin H. McNaughton, now on duty in Okinawa, and a daughter, Mrs. W. A. Vance of Charlotte. A sketch of Mr. McNaughton will be carried in the R-T next week.

without sacrificing what

Mulliken Man Dies In Grocery Store

O. J. McNaughton Former Elevator Operator

(Special to The State Journal)
MULLIKEN, Feb. 3—Orrin John McNaughton, 73, died unexpectedly Wednesday afternoon in a grocery store here following a heart attack.

A prominent businessman, he owned and operated the Mulliken grain elevator until recent years, when he became affiliated with the Michigan State Seed company. He was a member of the Mulliken Masonic lodge. Survivors include the widow, Fernie; a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Vance of Charlotte; two sons, Maj. Gen. Kenneth McNaughton of Washington, D. C., and Lieut. Col. Franklin McNaughton, stationed on Okinawa; a sister, Mrs.

Clara Car of Ada; three brothers, Sidney of Grand Ledge, Frank of Alto, and Roy of Mulliken; eight grandchildren.

The body was removed to the Barker funeral home and will be taken later to the residence, on North street, where funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. R. J. Fields will officiate and burial will be in Meadowbrook cemetery here.

Your kindness and sympathy will always be held in grateful remembrance

Edward J. Stemler
SUNFIELD, July 10—Edward Jacob Stemler, 66, of 225 S. Charles st., Lansing, died Wednesday morning at a convalescent home here where he had been for the past four weeks. He was born in Ontario, Can., but had lived and worked most of his life in Lansing. Survivors are one sister, Mrs. Mary Cogswell of Sunfield; and two brothers, John of Sunfield and Piler of Ionia. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Mapes funeral home in Sunfield with Rev. Donald Strobe of the Methodist church officiating.

Jackson J. Pullman
(Special to The State Journal)
CHARLOTTE, July 10 — Jackson T. Pullman, 49, of 703 S. Clinton st., died of a heart ailment Wednesday at the St. Lawrence hospital in Lansing. He was born Oct. 29, 1902, at Bannister, the son of Hiram and Eney Lowe Pullman, and had been a resident of this vicinity for the past 13 years. He had been employed as a clerk at the Sheldon Lumber company for the past 10 years. Surviving are the widow, Adeline Carter Pullman; a daughter, Mrs. Basil Burt of Lansing, and three step-sons, Earl Carter of the U. S. army, and Elmer and LaVern Dimond of Charlotte. The body is at the Burkhead chapel here awaiting funeral arrangements.

Bert L. Lumbert
Bert L. Lumbert, 73, of 1207 Theodore st., died early Monday morning at the home. Mr. Lumbert had lived in Lansing for the past nine years, coming here from Vermontville. He had been employed as maintenance man for the state department of health for five years and had worked in the same capacity for the Lansing Heating and Ventilating company. He was a member of the Vermontville Methodist church. The survivors are the widow, Florence B.; a son, Charles W. Lumbert of Holland; a daughter, Miss Arlene Lumbert of Lansing; three brothers, Willard D. and Roy Lumbert, both of Grand Ledge, and Claude of Greenville; a sister, Mrs. Lucy Tryon of Detroit, four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 5
- 6
- 6
- 7
- 8
- 7
- 9
- 10
- 11
- 12
- 13
- 22
- 22
- 22
- 22
- 22
- 7, 22
- 11
- 15
- 14
- 23
- 16
- 17
- 19
- 18
- 18
- 19
- 19
- 19
- 24
- 20
- 21