

FEBRUARY 28, 1952

Glenn Lake

Glenn A. Lake, 63, of Farwell, a former Charlotte resident, died of a heart attack Saturday at the home of the son, Douglas, in Midland, where he was visiting. He was born September 5, 1888, in Vermontville, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Lake, and was a resident of Charlotte for 20 years, moving to Midland nine years ago. He was a retired bookkeeper, a life member of Midland F. & A. M. lodge, a past patron of the Eastern Star, a past watchman of shepherds of Bethany Shrine, and a member of the Congregational church.

Surviving are the widow, Beulah; the son; a daughter, Mrs. Donald Chapin, of Midland, and the stepmother, Mrs. E. D. Lake of Middleville. Following services at Clare, the body was brought Monday to the Pray funeral home for services Tuesday at 2 p. m. Rev. Richard D. Hunter officiated. Masonic committal services were held at the grave in the Vermontville cemetery.

Frank E. Grant
SUNFIELD, Feb. 23—Frank E. Grant, 74, died unexpectedly Thursday evening at the home in Woodbury, where he had been a resident all his life. He was born March 13, 1877, the son of John and Margaret Grant. In 1900 he married Miss Olive Travis, who survives him. Besides the widow, he is survived by two sons, Wayne of Lake Odessa and John of Grand Ledge; two daughters, Mrs. Itha McArthur and Mrs. Violet Monasmith, both of Woodbury; a sister, Mrs. Roxa Seltor, also of Woodbury; 11 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren. The body will remain at the Grant residence in Woodbury until Sunday. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. at the United Brethren church. Burial will be at Woodland cemetery.

Bert Gregg, Belding, Dies

302

Brief Illness Fatal to Ex-Mail Aide

Belding—Bert Severance Gregg, 75, who was a clerk in the Belding postoffice 42 years before his retirement 10 years ago, died early Saturday at his home after suffering a stroke about 24 hours earlier.

Mr. Gregg was secretary of the Belding Sportsmen's club, was a member of the Congregational church, Rotary club and Good Fellowship club, and was a life member of the Masonic lodge.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Robert Conroy of Battle Creek; two sons, William of San Mapeo, Calif., and Frank of Charlotte, and 11 grandchildren.

The body is at the Fales-Huffman mortuary.

Sunfield Sargeant Is Reported Missing

(Special to The State Journal)
SUNFIELD, Dec. 8 — Sgt. 1-c Ernest R. Allen of Sunfield has been missing in action in Korea since Nov. 5, according to a telegram his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Allen, received from the war department.

Entering the army in October of 1950, Allen took his basic training at Camp Pickett, Va., as a member of the Seventh Cavalry regiment of the First Cavalry division. He arrived in Korea April 15.

Clarence L. Buchanan

Clarence L. Buchanan, 55, of 1242 Parkview ave., an employe of Motor Wheel corporation for 16 years and a resident of the city for 17 years, died at the home Saturday morning. He was born in Welch, W. Va., and had lived here since 1935, working as a steam fitter at Motor Wheel. He was a member of Pilgrim Congregational church and Lansing Lodge 33, F. and A. M. Survivors include the widow, Letha Mac, Mr. Buchanan's mother, Mrs. Flora E. Goff, Miami; two sons, David L. and Phillip, both of Lansing; two brothers, Roy C. of Princeton, W. Va., and Richard of Miami; and five sisters, Mrs. Ethel Maunt and Mrs. Beulah Beckham, both of Miami; Mrs. W. A. Glass, Coral Gables, Fla.; and Mrs. Fred Marquis and Mrs. Clarence Baske, both of Detroit. Services are being arranged by the Estes-Leadley company.

James Roche

WEBBERVILLE, Jan. 23—Funeral services for James Roche of Vermontville who died Jan. 15 were held Friday afternoon at the Liverance funeral home in Fowlerville with the Rev. Ira Cargo officiating. Burial was in Fowlerville cemetery. Mr. Roche is survived by the widow, Marian; two daughters, Ruth Ella and Barbara; two step-daughters, Shirley and Merla Craig, and the parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Roche of Fowlerville.