William C. Alsover of Grand Rapids is bequeathed $500.

John S. Beatty of Charlotte and Security National Bank of Battle Creek are given $30,000 in perpetual trust, to be invested and reinvested by them. From the income of this trust fund, $12 a month is to go to the Charlotte Cemetery Association for purchase of flowers to be placed on Mr. Beach's cecetery lot, except that when conditions are not suitable for outdoor placement of flowers, the money is to be used for flowers for Charlotte churches to be chosen by the trustees. And $100 annually is to go to each of five Charlotte churches-Lawrence Ave. Methodist, First Congregational, First United Brethren, and Baptist, Free Methodist-for their general religious or charitable purposes. But should the balance of the fund be insufficient for this purpose, then the amount remaining is to be divided equally among these churches. A desire also was expressed that each of these churches hold an annual of Michi F. H. Beach and Anna Beach ers, etc. memorial meeting.

"All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate," continues the will, "of whatever kind or character, and wherever situated, I give, devise and bequeath to my niece, Irma Beach Beatty, and to her husband, John S. Beatty, now of Charlotte, Mich., equally, share and share alike, absolutely and forever."

Mr. Beatty and the Security National Bank also are named co-executors, with Leonard W. Dott, trust officer of the bank, acting personally in its behalf.
