

(Special to The State Journal)

Mrs. Annie F. Whalen
NASHVILLE, April 28—Mrs. Annie F. Whalen, 63, formerly of Battle Creek, died early Saturday morning at the home of her son, Robert Whalen, of Vermontville, following a long illness. The body was taken to the Ward funeral home in Vermontville where it will remain until Sunday when it will be taken to the Farley funeral home in Battle Creek where services will be conducted Monday at 3:30 p. m. The body will then be taken to Kando, N. D., and then to Killarney, Manitoba, Canada, where burial will take place. She was born Jan. 21 in Killarney, Manitoba. She is survived by four sons, Robert, Joe, Frank and James, all of Battle Creek; one daughter, Mrs. Mary Damoth of Vermontville, and five grandchildren.

Mrs. Ona C. Blackmer
SUNFIELD, April 28—Mrs. Ona Christina Blackmer, 70, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Iva Laurell, Comstock Park, Friday, after a brief illness. She was born in Sunfield township April 24, 1881, the daughter of Martin and Mary Westcott, and had resided in this area all of her life. Mrs. Blackmer's husband, William, died in 1937. A son, Martin, died in 1936, and a daughter, Mary, died in 1920. Surviving are two sons, John Hubbard of Belmont, Mich., and David Blackmer of Charlotte; and four daughters, Mrs. Laurell of Comstock Park, Mrs. Dorothy Shaw of Charlotte, and Mrs. Ellen Clawson and Mrs. Agnes Culver of Sunfield. Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. from the Mapes funeral home, Sunfield, Rev. Ted Gandy officiating. Burial will be in Sunfield cemetery.

JOHN C. DANCY

The Detroit house of correction is not, tion, but k... February 5th, confinement between the a of a felony. a contract w It is the only victed of fel counties in t demeanors. United States of Michigan.

GRAND... IRA M. STE... THEODORE Y... EDMOND S... J. P. RILEY

SMITH H. A. C. EST JOHN W. ISAAC GR. DAVID PI

State Deaths

Clarence J. Tettengill (Special to The State Journal) SUNFIELD, June 29—Clarence J. Tettengill, 73, died at the residence, 930 Park st., Kalamazoo, Thursday morning where he had made his home for the past six years. He was born Aug. 13, 1877, in Sebewa township, the son of Benjamin and Caroline Tettengill. Several years of his life were spent in Sunfield. Surviving is the mother, Mrs. Caroline Coe; two sisters, Clarys and Gladys Coe, all of Portland. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Mapes funeral home in Sunfield. Rev. Donald Strobe will officiate. Burial will be in Sebewa Baptist cemetery.

L. EDITH HAWKINS

September 27, 1887

April 20, 1951

Services at

The Colonial Chapel
Estes-Leadley Funeral Home

Monday, April 23, 1951—1:00 P. M.

Clergymen

Rev. Herbert W. Thomas Rev. Frank H. Watkin

Miss Mildred Koonsman, Organist

Mrs. Marie Watkin, Soloist

Interment

EVERGREEN CEMETERY

Wilbur Haltermán Howard Dunckel
Norman Price Perry Daniels
Asa Daniels Glenn Garrison
—Bearers

Rites at Hastings
For E. H. Wilkes

Hastings—Funeral services for Edward H. Wilkes, 65, of Hastings, who died Sunday afternoon at Penock hospital, were held Tuesday at the Leonard funeral home. Burial was in Fuller cemetery. He was born May 21, 1885, in Carlton township and farmed there until moving to Hastings in 1931. He worked for the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and later for the Viking corporation. He is survived by his wife, Irene, of Kalamazoo; two sons, John of Berkley and Jay of Baton Rouge, La.; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Fisher of Hastings; a sister, Mrs. Dora Coleman of Hastings; two brothers, William of Battle Creek and Charles of Hastings; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Leonard R. Curtis
VERMONTVILLE, May 3 — Funeral services were to be conducted Thursday at 2:30 p. m. from the Ward funeral home in Vermontville for Leonard R. Curtis, 84, Mr. Curtis died unexpectedly from a heart attack Monday evening at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Floyd (Lillian) Timmarsh, where he had been making his home since his wife died two years ago. Born in Woodland township Oct. 16, 1866, he was a son of John and Mary (Cunningham) Curtis. He had been a farmer in this area for the past 50 years. Besides the daughter he is survived by one son, Elmer, Route 1, Vermontville; one granddaughter and three great-grandchildren. The services Thursday were to be in charge of Rev. Lorne Lee of the Nashville Church of the Nazarene, and he was to be buried beside his wife in the Woodland cemetery, Woodland. Pallbearers will be Carl Moon, Ward Hickok, Ben Slout, Dr. Orville Mater and Frank Snore.

Warren P. Bennett
CHARLOTTE, May 11 — Warren Phillip Bennett, 74, of 131 S. Main st., Olivet, died Wednesday at the Community hospital in Battle Creek, following a heart attack suffered Monday. He was born Oct. 30, 1875, in Mecosta county, the son of Louis and Mary Gilchrist Bennett. He was a retired farmer. On Dec. 3, 1902, he was married to Ruth Hallenbeck, who died March 31, 1950. Surviving are: four sons, Charles and Donald of Olivet, Phillip of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Russell of Charlotte; four daughters, Mrs. Lena Lynd of Vermontville, Mrs. Esther Jullerat of Albion, Mrs. Margaret Myers of Olivet and Mrs. Elizabeth Grinage of Wayland; a brother, William, of Battle Creek, and two sisters, Mrs. Maude Judd of Olivet and Mrs. Callista Faust of Vermontville. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Friday from the Pray funeral home. Rev. Richard Hunter of the Congregational church officiated. Burial was at Woodlawn cemetery, Vermontville.

SUNFIELD—Funeral services for Clarence J. Pettengill, 73, who died Thursday at his home in Kalamazoo, were held Saturday at the Mapes funeral home. Burial in Sebewa Baptist cemetery. He was born in Sebewa township. He lived in the Sunfield area many years.