

Virgil C. King
VERMONTVILLE, Dec. 30 — Virgil Carson King, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Fred King of this community, died Wednesday afternoon at the University of Michigan hospital, Ann Arbor. He was the husband of Mrs. Margaret King of Vermontville, who survives. Five sisters are living. They are: Mrs. Thelma Taylor of Lansing, Mrs. Goldie Diamond, Mrs. Freida Hetrick and Mrs. Virginia Scott, all of Charlotte, and Mrs. Adelaide Miller of Chicago. Services will be Monday at 2 p. m. from the Vermontville Methodist church, and burial will be in Woodlawn cemetery.

(Special to The State Journal)
Raymond Norton
CHARLOTTE, April 6—Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Saturday from the Burkhead chapel for Raymond Norton, 32, a farm laborer of Roxand township, who died of a heart attack Wednesday afternoon at the farmer's elevator here. He was born Dec. 13, 1898, in New York state, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Norton, and had been a resident of this vicinity for 30 years. Surviving is a cousin, Mrs. Clifford Sharp of Indian River. Burial will be in Needmore cemetery.

OBITUARIES

Albert A. Grinnell Dies at 86; Headed Firm

Albert A. Grinnell, former president of Grinnell Bros. Music House, died Tuesday after an illness of two years.

Mr. Grinnell, who was 85, lived at 11 McLean, Highland Park.

Mrs. Effie J. Fetterman

CHARLOTTE, March 22 — Mrs. Effie Jane Fetterman, 72, died Tuesday afternoon at the residence, 319 N. Main st., following a long illness. She was born Dec. 31, 1879, in Chester township, the daughter of George and Marcia Beeman Hodgman, and had been a resident of Eaton county all her life. On Dec. 15, 1896, she was married to Alvin Fetterman. Surviving are the husband; two daughters, Mrs. Vern Briggs of Chester township and Mrs. Fred Frye of Mason; a son, Marion, of Charlotte, and a brother, Jay Hodgman of Chester township. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday from the Pray funeral home. Rev. Marjorie Hawkins will officiate. Burial will be in Gresham cemetery, Chester township.

CHARLOTTE—Funeral services for Charles E. Taylor, 88, of Charlotte, who died Saturday at the Maier nursing home, were held Tuesday at the Pray chapel. Burial was in Maple Hill cemetery.

(Special to The State Journal)

Miss Clara Hay

LAKE ODESSA, March 8—Miss Clara Hay, 73, died Tuesday night in Pennock hospital, Hastings, where she had been for the past few days. She had lived all her life in this area. She was employed by the Lake Odessa Canning company for many years and was a member of the Calvary United Brethren church. Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Fattie Van Houten; two sister-in-laws, both named Mrs. Clara Hay, one residing in Casnovia and the other in Grand Rapids; four nephews and two nieces. Funeral services were to be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Pickens chapel with Rev. M. H. Dawson officiating. Burial was to be in Lakeside cemetery.

Mrs. Cora May Walsh

SUNFIELD, June 2—Mrs. Cora May Walsh, 66, died Friday night at the home after a long illness. Born in Edmore, she had lived 58 years in the Sunfield area. She is survived by the husband, Warren; a stepson, Clifford Walsh, Vermontville; three brothers, Robert Gierman, Portland; Carl Gierman, Lake Odessa, and Elmer Gierman, Ionia; and two sisters, Mrs. Edna Saver, Lake Odessa, and Mrs. Nettie Nash, Ionia. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday from the Mapes funeral home. Rev. Myrtle Benson of the Woodland Methodist church will officiate, with burial in the East Sebewa cemetery.

Eldon Hiar

MIDDLEVILLE, May 22—Funeral services will be held at the Beeler funeral home here Wednesday at 3:30 o'clock for Eldon Hiar, former resident of Vermontville, who died Sunday at Battle Creek. Death was caused by injuries sustained in World War II. Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hiar of Middleville, and a son.

... normal course, and a two-year pre-engineering course.

... modern constructional and administrative library and the the Hickman family. There was continuation marked which is controlled by Christian High the North Central twenty-two teachers. The present enrollment has 36 students.

Born in Shelby, N. Y., he came to Detroit from Oakfield, N. Y., in 1910.

AT OAKFIELD he had been engaged in a retail coal and lumber business and later operated grain elevators.

Coming to Detroit, he joined the music firm and became vice president when it was incorporated in 1912.

Later he was made president of Grinnell Bros., a position he held until his retirement in 1942.

He was educated at the Rochester Business University.

Mr. Grinnell married Miss Helen Avery in 1888. She died in 1931.

AN AVID COIN collector, he was one of the founders of the Detroit Coin Club and a member of the American Numismatic Association.

Mr. Grinnell was a member of Detroit Commandery, No. 1, K. T. and Moslem Shrine.

He is survived by his son-in-law and two grandchildren.

Services will be at 2:30 p. m. Saturday in the William R. Hamilton Co. chapel.

... GY.

... Detroit Institute of educational branch in 1891 and have it is slightly over

... collegiate department-commerce, college school. Founded ch of every man privileges to men acy and chemistry evening program:

... are bachelor of college of engineering-chemistry, bachelor of liberal arts, of law, bachelor of

... at Grand Circus both and John R board, tuition and

... opened on the in was made in 1855, Hillsdale