JAMES McDONALD

James McDonald, son of Francis and Margaret McDonald, was born in Ireland May 23, 1870. Coming with his people to this country at the age of three, they settled in the village of Lyons, Michigan, where he grew up, spending his early life in that vicinity and Ionia.

In 1900 he was united in marriage to Helen Kirkland, who still survives. Besides the widow he leaves to mourn their loss three children, a son, Francis of Charlotte, and two daughters, Mrs. Leslie Rolfe of Charlotte and Mable McDonald of Detroit, five grandchildren, a brother, John McDonald of Vermontville, two sisters, Mrs. Chester Jackson of Detroit and Mrs. Sarah Burtch of Ionia, several nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

The past forty years he has spent at farming around Muliken and Vermontville, where he passed away April 5, 1949, at his home, after several years of failing health. He was a good husband and father and a willing helper among his friends and neighbors.

Rosary was held at Ward's funeral home in Vermontville, 8:00 p. m. Thursday evening, and funeral services 10:30 a. m. Friday morning from St. Mary's church in Charlotte, Rev. Father Behan officiating.

He was laid to rest in Union cemetery near Grand Ledge in Oneida township, Eaton county.
