

Mrs. Lena Fox Dies Here Tuesday

Mrs. Lena Fox, 72, died suddenly Tuesday morning at the home of her son, Clyde, in the Brick district.

Mrs. Fox, daughter of Elmer Sabin and Emma Steward Sabin had spent her entire life in Eaton County, the last 20 years being spent near Vermontville.

Besides the son, Clyde, she is survived by another son, Homer of Ann Arbor, a daughter, Mrs. Gladys Ohlrich of Litchfield; one brother, Harlow of Birmingham; six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p. m. from the Burkhead Chapel in Charlotte with Rev. D. D. Nagle of the Vermontville Congregational church officiating. Burial in the Pottsville cemetery beside her husband, Aruthr E. who died in 1946.

one of Motor Wheel's veteran employees, Mr. Baumt came to work here March 11, 1921, and was assigned to the old Wood Wheel Department at Plant No. 1. Prior to that time he had been employed at the Gier Pressed Steel Company, one of Motor Wheel's predecessor concerns.

Mr. Baumt

Mr. Baumt had been employed in the Plant No. 2 Maintenance Department since January 1, 1937. He first came to work at Motor Wheel February 21, 1934, as a helper in the Press Room. Following a short lay-off during a period of slack work later in 1934, Mr. Baumt returned to Plant No. 2 November 13, 1935, and two years later was transferred to the Maintenance Department where he still was employed at the time of his death.

He is survived by the wife, Viola; two sons, Dale of Charlotte and the Rev. Charles Baum, pastor of the United Brethren Church of Kalamazoo; two daughters, Mrs. Addie King of Charlotte and Mrs. Es-

... No. 2, traveled only a half mile from her home near Fowler to bag this 180-pound, seven-point buck. She brought the big deer down with her 16-gauge shotgun. Story on page one.

Virgil Carson King

Virgil Carson King, only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Fred King, was born June 11, 1924 and passed away at the University hospital in Ann Arbor, Wednesday, Dec. 27 at 6:20 p.m., being one of a family of six children. He was united in marriage to Margaret (Peggy) Grether in San Benito, Texas, Feb. 12, 1949. They had spent most of their married life in Eaton county. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, Margaret; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Fred King; five sisters, Mrs. Thelma Taylor of Lansing, Mrs. Goldie Diamond of Charlotte, Mrs. Adelaide Miller of Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Freida Hetrick and a twin sister, Mrs. Virginia Scott of Charlotte, nine nephews, two nieces, one grandnephew, several uncles and aunts, besides a host of friends.

FRED J. WHITE, 62, DIED AT HASTINGS

Funeral services will be held this Thursday at 10:00 a. m. at the Leonard funeral home in Hastings for Fred J. White, 62, who died Sunday morning at Penneck hospital following a stroke. Rev. Chalmer Miller of Freeport will officiate, and burial will be in Middleville cemetery.

Mr. White was born Jan. 12, 1889, in Missouri, the son of Cassius and Lenna (Daugherty) White, and came to Barry county about forty years ago. He was a resident of Nashville for some years, serving as telegraph operator for the M. C. R. R. Recently he had been living in Freeport, and was engaged in leasing oil rights in western Michigan.

Surviving are his widow, Mabel, of Youngstown, Ohio, and a sister, Mrs. Ollie Eddy of Riverview, Florida.

Andrew Ely Dies at 52

Funeral services for Andrew J. Ely, 52, Plant No. 2 employe, were held December 19 at the Estes-Leadley Funeral Home, with the Rev. Lester Boyd of the Pennsylvania Avenue Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in the DeWitt Cemetery.

bo is th of th an me gei cor to sev I a s telc car thu lect the : ceiv It duly for n issuec taxes state The busin power

stic appo: i upc iool t em: red ce educa pervis: nd ac iol or s priv es cor d educ ber and te adm: board of January rintender as a men ssors, bq swamp