A band of thirty ruffians under leadership of Smith tried to run the high school juniors off the street last Friday night. Eight junior boys well organized held their ground for an hour though they were treated in a most shameful manner. Three juniors were heaped up in a thistle patch and another had the breath nearly trampled out of him while the girls were grossly insulted. Altogether it was the most disgusting mixup ever heard of around here.

To Radus succeeded Tib Moses Hawkins

Moses Hawkins, son of Moses L. and Elizabeth Hawkins, was born in Vermontville township, Eaton county, part of this life July 26, 1927, at the Michigan, February 8, 1861, and de-aze of 66 years. Mr. Hawkins was one of a family of twelve children, all of whom preceded him in death, with the exception of two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Warren of Galesburg and Mrs. Adelaide Trumbull of Saranac. Mr. Hawkins had lived in Vermontville township all his life and for the past ten years he had lived on his little farm south of the village of Vermontville, sharing his home with his old friend, Mr. Theodore Muir. "Uncle Mose," as he was known to everyone, was a good neighbor and a kind friend and will be greatly missed by those who knew him best.

The funeral was held from the home near Vermontville Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Elder J. W. Roach officiated. Interment was made in the Vermontville cemetery.

Those attending the funeral from away were Mrs. Elizabeth Warren and son, Bert Warren of Galesburg, Mrs. Adelaide Trumbull of Saranac, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Trumbull, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trumbull of Lansing; Donald Berger, Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Austin and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Aus in, Battle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin, Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. John Lake, Nashville.

MISS BERTHA ZEMKE DIED IN BAY CITY

Had Been Active in Business and Social Circles Both in Caro and Cass City

(Caro Argus)

Miss Bertha Zemke died in Samaritan Hospital, Bay City, June 22, from complications resulting from a fall several weeks ago, thought at the time to be not serious.

She was born in Germany 66 years ago, coming to this country in 1888 when the family settled near Vermontville, Eaton county. She lived there and in Lansing until 1909 when she came to Caro and has since made her home with her brother, O. A. Zemke. She was active in the stores of Zemke Brothers both in Caro and Cass City, devoting most of her time for ten years in the latter place, thus widely extending a circle of friends. In 1910 she visited her birthplace in Germany, remaining there about 15 months and returning October 1, 1911. She was active in her membership of the Presbyterian churches of Caro and Cass City and enjoyed a wide acquaintance in business and social circles in both towns.

She leaves five brothers and one sister: Theodore of Berlin, Germany; Herman and Richard, Vermontville; Otto and Erwein of Caro and Mrs. H. W. Cooper of Mayesville, South Carolina.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Zemke with her old pastor, Rev. N. D. Braby of Lapeer conducting the service and the Huston-Collon company in charge of the arrangements. Burial will be in Caro mausoleum.

Among the relatives and friends from out of town who attended the funeral of Miss Bertha Zemke Sunday afternoon were: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zemke, Richard Zemke, son, Reinhart and daughters Irene, Margareta and Martha, Mr. and Mrs. Erbie Zemke and daughter Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Snider, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zemke and daughter Evelyn, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Southern of Vermontville; Carl Zemke, Mr. and Mrs. Theodor Zemke, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Purchis and daughters Marda and Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zemke and Mr. and Mrs. VanCamp of Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. Theodor Zemke and son Ralph and Mr. and Mrs. Nitzke and son of Sebawang; Mrs. H. W. Cooper of Mayesville, South Carolina; and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Walt of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Morden of Saginaw and Mr. and Mrs. H. Clement of Deckerville.
