CHARLES

Charles P. Gordon was born in Hilldale, Michigan, May 18, 1887, and passed from this world at the home, 604 S. Sheldon, Charlotte, January 16, 1932.

He was but four years of age when his father died and a little later his mother, with her children came to Eaton county, where he has since lived. In December, 1910, he was united in marriage to Miss Lottie Chatfield of Sunfield and in this union were born four children, Mary Ellen, Carl, Charles Deane and Shirley. Practically his whole life had been spent in Sunfield township. On account of failing health the family moved to Charlotte, to fall to the home of Mrs. Gordon's mother, Mrs. Mary Chatfield, where everything that was possible was done for his comfort. He leaves to mourn their loss, his wife and children mentioned, his mother, Ellen Fender, a half brother, sister, Lewis Fender and Mrs. Gow, all of Grand Ledge, a brother, Melvin Fender of Seberson, a step father, and step-sister, Fender and Mrs. Oliver Brown, both of Sunfield, together with many other relatives and a host of friends who are saddened by his going and will always cherish his memory.

The body was removed to Pray funeral home where the funeral services were held Monday, Jan. 18, 1932, at two o'clock in afternoon. Rev. R. W. Roth of Congregational church officiated and interment was made at the Freemire cemetery in Sunfield township.

Charles Jacobs

Chas. Clark Jacobs was born in York, Pennsylvania, July 4, 1849, and died at his home in Sunfield township Jan. 27, 1934, aged 84 years, 6 months and 23 days. He came with his parents to Michigan at the age of 10 years and settled in Roxand township where he spent most of his young life, later moving to Sunfield. He was the third son of Jeremiah and Mary Jacobs. He leaves to mourn their loss one brother, Will Jacobs, of Greenville, and two nieces, Mrs. Maude Devel of Charlotte, and Mrs. Gertie Trim of Lake Odessa, besides many dear and close friends. The funeral was held from the Mapes funeral home Tuesday p. m. at 2 o'clock. Rev. E. C. Lyons officiating. Burial in the Sunfield cemetery by the side of his brother, John.
