

Mack Dodd, 76, buried Thursday

bond. [M.S.A.]

Services Held For Mrs. Crystal Balduff

Mrs. Crystal G. Balduff, 69, passed away Friday forenoon at Pennock hospital after a long period of ill health. She had been hospitalized since Monday.

A native of Ingham county, she married William F. Balduff January 18, 1819 and came to the local area in 1930 from Dimondale, residing on the farm on M-66 until last November when they moved to their home on Sixth Avenue.

Mrs. Balduff was a member of the Central Methodist Church, the WSCS and Adult Fellowship Supper club of the church, the Go-F'er's Farm Bureau, West Sebawa Community club and the New Idea Extension club.

Surviving are her husband; five daughters, Mrs. Clarence (Marian) Miler of rural Sunfield; Mrs. Jack (June) McManus of Eaton Rapids; Mrs. Jack (Beatrice) Van of San Francisco, Calif.; Mrs. Willard (Margaret) Brodbeck of rural Lake Odessa; and Mrs. Floyd (Helen) Hewitt of rural Clarksville; fifteen grandchildren; two sisters Mrs. Delos (Marie) Hanna of Hopkins and Mrs. Laura Lauer of Ypsilanti and a brother Charles Huntington of Mason. A son Harold passed away August 10, 1933.

Funeral services were held Monday at 1:30 at the Pickens Funeral Chapel with burial in Lakeside cemetery Rev. Luther Brokaw officiated.

John M. (Mack) Dodd, 76 of 6871 N. Ionia Rd., died Monday morning at a Battle Creek hospital, where he had been a patient for three weeks.

He was the son of Jay and Laura Dodd. He was married to Kittie Mosier, who died in Nov. 1940. Mr. Dodd retired in 1956 after working for the Eaton County Highway Department. Since then he has been a part-time farmer.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Ronald Pennington of R. #5, Hastings; Mrs. Edward Keehne of 6871 N. Ionia Rd., Bellevue and Mrs. Charles Freiburg, El Paso, Texas. Mr. Dodd leaves seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. There are two sisters, Mrs. Claude Miller of Olivet and Mrs. Leo Foss of Lindenville, New York and two brothers, Delbert and Herbert of Charlotte.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 2 p.m. from the Lehman Funeral Home with Rev. Keith Palmerton officiating. Burial was in Gresham cemetery, Eaton County, Michigan.

MRS. CLARA MAE PUGH

Mrs. Clara Mae Pugh, 75, died Thursday, Feb. 6, 1964, at the Hayes-Green-Beach Hospital, Charlotte. She had been a patient there four days. Surviving are the husband, Pitt; two sons, Dr. Millard Pugh, Athens, and Frank Pugh of Bellevue; five grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held Saturday at the Vogt Funeral Home. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Vermontville.

said shall file an application for such experience, reputation to public health, ear, and shall be shall be issued by for whom service and sufficiency as residents of the all be the obligee, damaged by faulty seepage pits, and within 30 days of ids shall be conditioned manner.

nts, fees, term; from septic tanks, inspection by his icle license shall nd year of such aste from septic mmissioner shall for each vehicle mmissioner, after hicle and equip- issued a licens- le licenses under r in city, county with such infor- to another, and on to the vehicle painted on both M.D.H. licensed vehicle", and said words shall be followed with the vehicle license number. Directly adjacent to said words and vehicle license number shall be affixed a seal furnished by the commissioner which shall designate the year for which the license was issued. The year on such seal shall correspond to the year which appears on the license plate of the vehicle. All licenses issued and bearing expiration dates of June 30, 1957 shall be deemed to expire on the last day of February 1958, provided that a surety bond is furnished covering the extended period.

Approved May 17, 1957.