

Former Mayor Of Grand Ledge Succumbs at 85

GRAND LEDGE—H. Marr Byington, 85, Grand Ledge, prominent public servant and businessman, died Friday in a Lansing hospital. He had been hospitalized about six weeks.

Mr. Byington was a former mayor and city treasurer of Grand Ledge, relief administrator and member of the relief commission for Eaton County, and a member of the first board of directors of Hayes-Green-Beach Hospital, Charlotte.

He was Grand Ledge postmaster from 1935 to 1950 and instrumental in getting a new post office here in 1939.

Byington was a life member of Masonic Lodge No. 179, and until his death was its oldest living past master. He joined the lodge in 1901.

He operated a shoe store here 35 years, was a graduate of Albion College, and a member of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity and the Congregational Church.

Survivors include the widow, Cora; a son, Ford of Grand Ledge; a brother, Dr. G. M. Byington of Los Gatos, Calif., and a grandson.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Monday at the Peters Funeral Home here. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery.

Florence Slade Dies in Hospital

Mrs. Florence May Slade, 77, of 3325 Ridgefield Rd., died at a local hospital, Wednesday.

Born at VanWert, O., she had lived in Lansing for more than 25 years and in the vicinity of Charlotte, Vermontville and Bellevue more than 25 years.

Surviving are the following daughters and sons: Mrs. Wilbur C. Tubbs, and Mrs. Jack D. Smith of Lansing, Luman M. Slade of Eaton Rapids; Theron K. Slade of Vermontville, Clare R. Slade of Holt, Mrs. Reeland L. Springer, Ogden, Utah, and one brother, Walter Hinton of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., 17 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Estes-Leadley Colonial Chapel at 2:30 p.m. Saturday with burial in Glendale Cemetery.

Services Held Saturday for Former Resident

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Hilda Porter, 42, a former Sunfield resident, Saturday afternoon, Nov. 16, at two o'clock from the Mapes-Fisher Funeral home here. Mrs. Porter died November 13 at her home in Charlotte.

Mrs. Porter was born July 13, 1921 in Sunfield, the daughter of Frank and Golda (Southwell) Jackson. She lived in Sunfield until five years ago, then Eaton Rapids and Charlotte the last two and a half years.

Surviving besides the husband, Lawrence, are two daughters, Mrs. Judy Brooks of Charlotte, and Susan at home; three sons, James, Robert and Donald, all at home; the mother, Mrs. Golda Jackson of rural Sunfield; four sisters, Mrs. Helen Hager and Mrs. Hope Hart, both of rural Sunfield, Mrs. Hazel Porter and Mrs. Heartha Franks, both of rural Mulliken; two brothers, Harold Jackson of rural Sunfield and Hugh Jackson of North Street; and three grandchildren.

Officiating at the services was the Rev. Eugene Friesen of Sunfield. Burial was in Sunfield cemetery.

The pallbearers were George Davis, Maynard Ritter, Kerwin Booher, Robert DeLand, Keith Hough and Jack Mapes.

That the governing board, the commission name or number of terminus and type of days file in his office. view; notices, con- 11.1154] of bids for the contract which a review will be required for review of after the date set for ? insertions in some ere is one, the first bids, and by posting where the district is late set for receiving mail of the time and a person whose name ing land within the f no address appears amissioner shall make to whom such notice appear upon such tax t, and such affidavit m notice is required give any such notice n proceeding and/or d in this section. is necessary for the ept that part which municipalities, then equired. Such notice es to be assessed at ore members of the township, the mayor Such notice shall ng the special assess- man not be necessary to subdivide any tract where the whole thereof is within such drainage district or to than by reference to it by its name or number, and it shall also h of sections, the average depth and width of each section, and he amount and specifications of all tile or pipe required; the size of all culverts and bridges and the conditions upon which will be awarded, but said notice need not contain minutes of which shall be kept on file in the office of the drain commissioner at the time and place of such letting. Bids shall be received and st of the drain shall be made, as herein provided, before the pportionment, and such computation shall be open to inspection h computation shall not be completed before the day of review, ned from time to time, not more than 20 days in all, for the tion, or a new hearing may be called with like notice, by pub- at least 10 days before such hearing. If for any reason, the