

Area

PUBLIC ACTS 1957—No. 76.

al
7,
n-
al
ns
pot
d el
er
l-
is r.
c
st e io
th
i-
g
e
a
y

Harry F. Moore

CHARLOTTE — Harry F. Moore, 59, died at a local hospital Saturday night after suffering a heart attack at his home at 811 Lansing St. Mr. Moore, a contractor, was a resident of the area 20 years and a member of Lawrence Avenue Methodist Church. He is survived by the widow, Mary; five sons, Harry Jr., William, Jack and Donald, all of Charlotte, and Floyd of Ocqueoc; eight daughters, Mrs. Estil Rice of Bellevue, Mrs. Russell Cain of Farmington, Mrs. Jerry Brophy of Pleasant Lake, Mrs. Robert Rochester and Mrs. Marson Johnson, both of Eaton Rapids, Mrs. Charles Powers, Mrs. Richard Babcock and Mrs. Roy Parrish, all of Charlotte; two sisters, Mrs. Ida Pomranky of Brimley and Mrs. Bertha O'Connor of San Francisco; 38 grandchildren and one great-granddaughter. Services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Pray Funeral Home. Burial will be in Maple Hill Cemetery.

school release or discharge, age limitation, conditions.

fill remain in said school until his release therefrom; but no school beyond the age of 19 years. Upon his release or discharge of him, or placed temporarily in the care of any person of good moral character who is willing to furnish him a home or employment hereof. A release may be upon conditions set by the state which may include a requirement that the boy remain under the supervision of an employee of the department designated for that purpose or the natural parents or other persons with whom he shall cooperate closely with the employee or agent in carrying out super-of Act No. 183 of the Public Acts of 1925, entitled as amended, being the girls' training school, continuing said school in social welfare commission; prescribing who may be admitted to the school and training to be enforced and provided therein, the officers immediately in charge of said school and other assistants appointed or hired in said institution, as amended, being Laws of 1948.

[No. 76.]

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

Heart ailment fatal to D. H. Sprague

Donald H. Sprague, 55, of 5943 Clinton Trail, died Thursday evening as a result of a heart attack. He was a carpenter and heavy construction worker. Surviving are the widow, Berniece; three daughters, Miss Sue Sprague of Flint, Miss Jane Sprague, Albion, and Miss Jackie Sprague of Alma; and a sister, Mrs. Vella Feldpaugh, Greenville. Services were held Monday at Charlotte with burial in Woodlawn Cemetery, Leslie. Victor Alt, Past Master of the local F & AM #63 was in charge of graveside services.

No. 183 of the Public Acts of 1925, as amended, being Laws of 1948, is hereby amended to read as follows:

; release or discharge, age limitation, conditions.

remain in said school until her release therefrom or from the juvenile division of the probate court which sent her to the school beyond the age of 19 years. Upon her return either to the county from which she came or to her natural parents or to her natural guardian or to her natural guardian, or placed temporarily in the care of any person of good moral character who is willing to furnish her a home or employment hereof. A release may be upon conditions set by the state which may include a requirement that the girl remain under the supervision of an employee of the department designated for that purpose or the natural parents or other persons with whom she shall cooperate closely with the employee or agent in carrying out super-