

In Memory of Carrie May Weeks
BORN
 June 1, 1882
PASSED AWAY
 March 16, 1964
SERVICES AT
 Vogt Funeral Home
 Thursday, Mar. 19, 2:00 p.m.
OFFICIATING
 Rev. Leonard Maunder
INTERMENT
 Woodlawn Cemetery
BEARERS
 Jack Rathburn Leonard Aldrich
 John Rodriguez Wilbur Walsh Otus Mills Dale Northrup an appraisal shall have been iser and filed with the invest-

24.1946]
 its assets in a home office lands s own use and as a source of le unless and until a certificate ted by the commissioner after of the city in which the home ssioner for the purpose of such a valuation of the property at l therein by such company.

itors, adjusters, counselors;
 A. 24.11400]

apter shall apply with respect
 :

pointment or licensing, qualifigents shall not apply to the ge. This exemption shall not any such attorney-in-fact to nonresident agent, or solicitor or solicitors shall not extend by any attorney-at-law for o ined, nor extend to or includ on a commission basis, r such provisions.

500.2206 Minor's capacity to receive insurance benefits [M.S.A. 24.12206]

JOHN M. DODD

John M. (Mack) Dodd, 76, of Bellevue, died Monday, Feb. 10, 1964, at a Battle Creek hospital, where he had been a patient for three weeks. He was the son of Jay and Laura Dodd. He was married to Kittie Mosier, who died in Nov. 1940. Mr. Dodd retired in 1956 after working for the Eaton County Highway Department. Since then he has been a part-time farmer. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs.
 Ronald Pennington, of Route 5, Hastings; Mrs. Edward Keehne, of Bellevue, and Mrs. Charles Freburg, El Paso, Texas. Mr.
 Dodd leaves seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.
 There are two sisters, Mrs.
 Claude Miller of Olivet and Mrs.
 Leo Foss of Lindenville, New York, and two brothers, Delbert and Herbert, of Charlotte. Interment was in Gresham Cemetery with Rev. Keith Palmerton officiating.

Willis Wheaton
 Ex-Eaton Officer
 Succumbs at 90

CHARLOTTE — Willis
 Wheaton, 90, a retired Chester Township farmer, died Sunday at a local hospital.
 Mr. Wheaton served 32 years as a member of the Eaton County Board of Supervisors and was a member of the board of Hayes-Green-Beach Hospital here.
 He belonged to Lodge No. 120
 F&AM; Horace S. Maynard Chapter No. 82, RAM, and Charlotte Commandery No. 37, Knights Templar.
 Mr. Wheaton is survived by the widow, Ada; a son, Myrle; a brother, Howard, of Arizona, three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

the age of 18 years
 e and discharge for,
 cal payments in an urance company as endowment benefit
 ement agreement,
 he minor; but no
 or to anticipate

ation. [M.S.A.

ife or disability
 ithout his written istrative purposes
 to be ascribed to aterially affectisability insurance
 covery thereunder
 f the risk or the

37