Accidents Fatal to

Same; approval. Sec. 2. The conve storm of which shall be Moneys, disposit Sec. 3. The money state treasury and wo1 Approved May 28, 1

dev grac wor

devo nintAN ACT to amend rs and chauffeurs y Eaton Sheriff's officers reported. ity by owners ans.

1899, its; and to repere TWO OTHERS HURT
Episco, as amended bye being sied Laws of 194er one seriously, in the crash. of 194 of Mrs. Morgan died about Section 1. Section as Section the Public Fidure 1 Police said Mrs. Morgan was en by Harold A. Fisher, 60, of the Mt. Hope address, when it was struck broadside by a south-bound automobile operated by Syver Anderson, the white Shrine of Jerusalem and Bethel Shrine 11.

Surviving are six cousins, By-ron Rawson, Lansing; Cleo Rawson are six of Charlotte; Vern Rawson, Lansing; Cleo Rawso

Sec. r is occupying meeting notice fitional instruction to permittee under 16. the city Upon completion of an approved driver education therein, lucation certificate to the permittee, the permittee mas |S. Army in Panama; two sisters, places inied by a parent or guardian for the purpose of additi the signact is ordered to take immediate effect. church roved May 28, 1957.

An eight-year-old Holt boy and 68-year-old Lansing woman died Wednesday of injuries suffered in traffic accidents Tuesday and Wednesday.

The dead were Jay Allen Lake of Holt and Mrs. Luella Morgan of 716 E. Mt. Hope Road.

The Holt youth died Wednesday at a Lansing hospital. He was injured Tuesday night when thrown from a car operated by teactto provide for theh his brother, Kent, 16, 4794 Furtentlated upon the purg ney St., Holt. The Lake car collided with another at M-99 and Holt Highway near Dimondale, Mrs. Morgan became Lanollection of specin-sing's ninth traffic fatality license fees and Wednesday afternoon when she was thrown from a car at Holmes Road and S. Logan Street.

of Mrs. Morgan died about 5:20 ut p.m., about 45 minutes after the ri-collision.

section mended to reache riding in an eastbound car drivers by Harold A. Fisher, 60, of en by Harold A. Fisher, then it have charicted instruiwhich sh The director at mose injury. Fisher, who suffered chest injuries, was reporting.

Third ip ly damaged, officers said.

Ada; Mrs. Vern Hiar, Middleville, and Mrs. Hazel Adams, LaGrange, Ohio.

The body is at the Gorslineany towl instruction Ito ed in serious condition at the theretofc who is enroll Ingham Medical Hospital.

The Holt youth is a son and Man Month of the Holt youth of the Holt youth is a son and Man Month of the Holt youth of t

458.254 approved by ye A Lansing resident for 24

Mrs. Ruth Baker Dies in Hospital

Mrs. Ruth M. Baker, 71, of Route 2, Olivet, died early Saturday morning in the local hospital where she had been a patient one day. Born in Carmel township, January 26, 1893, the daughter of Charles and Philinda (Stevens) Halsey, she was a lifetime resident of Eaton county. She married Ray A. Baker June 6, 1916 and had been a resident of Walton township since 1918.

Mrs. Baker is survived by the husband, Ray; a son, Ivan Baker of Route 2, Olivet; six grandchildren; three brothers, Ira Halsey of Route 6, Charlotte, Arthur Halsey of Route 2, Olivet, and Scott Halsey of Route 2, Eaton Rapids.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. from the Burkhead-Cheney Chapel with burial in Maple Hill cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Welles Stone are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Gaylon Byrd, enroute from their summer home in Northern Mich-Enroute they igan to Florida. will visit their daughter in De-lyears, Mrs. Morgan was born f triin Vermont ville. She was a member of the Spiritualist fews Episcopal Church, Amity chap-ter, Order of the Eastern Star,

Ada; Mrs. Vern Hiar, Middle-

behh The Holt youth is a son of Mr. 3.254 approved by ye A Lansing resident for 24 to y new St. They lived in Holt 1½ see ACCIDENTS—A-6, Col. 4 we's years, moving there from Milnly on a design Surviving in addition to his parents are four brothers, Karold, Kerry and Kent, all at home, and Kenneth, with the U. home, and his grandparents, Mr. ^e and Mrs. Robert Haggert, Battle Creek.

Funeral services will be Saturday, 1 p.m., at the Estes-Leadley Holt Chapel with burial in Maple Ridge Cemetery.