Marion F. Deuel March 11, 1965

Sunday, March 14, 1965 2:00 P. M.

Pray Funeral Home Charlotte, Michigan

Officiating Rev. Floyd Nagel

Organist Ella Beth Nevins

Interment

Fremire Cemetery Eaton County, Michigan

Casket Bearers

Calvin Porter Lawrence Porter Keith Seitz

3 years. The members of the board annually shall elect a Father of Pauline Lehman dies Tues.

actual and necessary In political subc and its installation, for similar inspection according to the latelectrical inspectors death. a journeyman's lice the governor, 1 shall be a representative of an insurance is state, 1 shall be a representative of an electrical energy state. 1 shall be an electrical contractor operating in electrician serving as a supervisor, 1 shall be an electrica electrical inspector of a municipality, and 1 shall be a primarily and actively engaged in producing material, fitti apparatus and the like, used as part of, or in connection w the 7 members first appointed, 3 shall be appointed for a

2 years, and 2 for a term of 3 years. Thereafter, each app

338.884 Electric methods. [M meetings 4 times a request of 4 member

The members of

Sec. 4. New c buildings and struct not excluded by thi prescribed by the 1

All installations and in conformity orders, rules and re with this act.

Conformity of in the national elec other safety codes

it provides inspection se.

338.885 Same; licer,

Sec. 5. Except as p

18.204(6)]

as limiting the power oy fornia.

Adolph Douse, 79, father of Mrs. Carl Lehman, died Tuesday noon Cecil Deuel ata Lansing hospital where he had Charles Deuel been a patient nine days. He liv- Victor Deuel ed in Lansing at the time of his

Mr. Douse was born in Austria, a son of Joseph and Julia Douse. He was employed by Lansing Motor Wheel until he retired about nine years ago.

Sruviving besides Mrs. Lehman hi are two other daughters. Mrs. Harold Voelker of Daytona Beach, Fla. and Mrs. Harlin Scobey of Woodland; two sons, Adolph Jr. of Nahsville and Kenneth of Lansing; 10 grandchildren and five greatgrandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Lehman Funeral Home. Friday

The board may auto Ex-Eaton Woman, inspection department if Mrs. Lamb Dies

Mrs. Emily Elizabeth Lamb, 63, a former Vermontville resi-Sec. 5. Except as r firm or corporation to the generation, distribution without being duly licer ing a permit from the b

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. 338.886 Same; licer Virginia McCrimmon of Lansing; two step-daughters, Mrs. Sec. 6. The provi Mrs. Annetta Moore of Coldjurisdiction of any cin water; five grandchildren, four ordinance providing sti-prescribed by the 1956's brother, C. B. Tompkins of Cali-of persons, firms or cod municipality, or to promunicipality except that will be in the Woodlawn Cemed tery, Vermontville.

Retired Press Operator Dies Tuesday Morning

Clifford Lyle Thompson, 71, of Nashville, a retired punch press operator, died Tuesday morning in Leila-Post Hospital, Battle Creek, where he had been a patient eight days.

A life-long resident of Barry and Eaton counties, Mr. Thompson was born in Hastings Aug. 7, 1893, a son of John and Artie be prima facie evidence mar such installations are reasonaphy (Hall) Thompson. On Jan. 31, 1915, he was married to Ruth Pullman of Vermontville.

Besides the wife, Mr. Thompson is survived by five sons, Lyle of Albion, Clarence of 5 Nashville, Albert and Robert st both of Charlotte and Donald of Hastings; a brother, Glenn of a Grand Rapids; a sister, Mrs. el Gladys Stanton of Maple City; (20 grandchildren, and 10 greatgrandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. from the Vogt Funeral Home, Nashville, with burial in Lakeview Cemetery, Nash-adopted of nercuiter war s installation not less than those ontained herein shall be construed nce or to provide for the licensing a place of business located in the en electricians who reside in the the procurement of a license or