Philip Barber, Banker, Dies

Cocal Man Headed Two Eaton Banks

Philip H. Barber of 47 Guest St., retired dean of Eaton County bankers and great - grandson of one of the founders of Vermontville, died yesterday afternoon in a local hospital, where he had been a patient only about an hour and a half.

Philip H.

ribe.

riols

pa

SU

A Battle Creek residentthe past 45 years,

Barber Mr. Barber had retired in 1960 as a senior vice president of the Michigan National Bank in charge of its Charlotte branch.; osts He and his wife had spent win-red b. ters in Arizona.

He was born in Vermontville, and E. Rogers, Max Business, both the county treat ald A. Zinn, William B. Otto the county treasur. Frances (Dancer) Barber. His father was a son of Homer G. d ad Thomas A. Griffin Barber, a son of Edward Hinman Barber, who was a native of Benson, Vt., and one of the 13 incorporators of the village east of Vermontville in 1836."

Succeeded His Father Homer G. Barber, a merchant, organized the private Barber bgr Bank in Vermontville in 1862. In 1907 the institution was incorporated as the Barber State Bank.

The son, Edward D., became f president of the bank after his d father's death in 1909 and also headed the Eaton County Savings Bank in Charlotte, which he was instrumental in organizing. After his death in 1931, his son, Philip H., headed both banking firms.

The two banks were merged at the end of 1954 and in 1959 ice were acquired by the Michigan National Bank, at which time fin Mr. Barber was named senior, re vice president in charge of the pay Charlotte bank.

As a youth, he attended Howe Military Academy, graduating just in time to enlist in the Army during World War I. On April 24, 1922, in the chapel of Battle Creek's St. Thomas Episted copal Church, he was married a the had met while she was a inal causes; to prove to Helen Bollons Murphy, whom music student at the University the appointment of of Michigan.

In First World Was

Mr. Barber was a member to provide for proce ever and former vestryman of St. overy of crime; to vers Thomas Church. In Charlotte, off he was a charter member of inal cases; miscelland cedi the local American Legion Post enalties for the viola act and a senior active member of of acts inconsistent pro the Rotary Club.

ection He is survived by his wife and two nephews, Col. Homer G. Barber of Fort Sam Houston, d thereof. Peop Texasp and Edward G. Barber of Hastings. His two brothers, ad Vance and Keith, preceded him che in death. 14.Ceby 14

Friends may call at the Shaw Public Acts of 192 ende Funeral Home, which will be in 774.26 of the Com charge of funeral services at 11 to chapter 14 to a.m. Friday in St. Thomas Epis-hs to read as follocopal Church. The burial office for the dead will be conducted by the Rev. Charles P. James, rector of the church. Interment will be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers will paid before the ac be Ervin Broeckert, Laurence the court before and : E. Rogers, Max Bushong, Don-, the county trea rovide for judgme for procedure relat tion of such officers of the peace in crim by Act No. 79 of of 1948, and to add

be pursuant to law, a

Thomas A. Griffin Dies at Residence

Thomas A. Griffin, 84, of 629 W. Lawrence Ave., Charlotte, died at midnight Thursday at his residence. He had been in ill health two years.

Mr. Griffin was born October 2, 1881 in Kalamo township, son of Albert and Addie (Farquar) Griffin. He was a retired stone mason and had been a resident of the Charlotte area his entire life. He was married September 10, 1952 in Kalamo to Nina Wood Griffin.

Surviving are the wife; a daughter, Mrs. Hortense Hess of Charlotte; two step-daughters, Mrs. Donald (Dorothy) Newland of Charlotte and Mrs. Andrew (Josephine) Williams of Brookfield township; a step-son, Robert Griffin of DeKalb, Illinois; six grandchildren and six greatgrandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Monday at the Burkhead-Cheney chapel. Burial was in Kalamo cemetery

asurer, contents peace within their the auditor geneon with respect on account of costs: (1) rec e fine, (5) amo ed bond, (8) the name of cted. Each ju easurer, 1 to ontroller or 1 f the peace blank e justice receives on of costs. The (1) the name of number, (4) the eived, (7) amount One copy of the ty treasurer. The