

Arthur Statsick Dies Suddenly At Farm Home

Funeral services for Arthur E. Statsick, 78, who died suddenly at his farm home, 5994 Saddlebag Lake Road, Woodland, Tuesday evening, will be held Friday at 1:30 at the Pickens Chapel in Lake Odessa.

Rev. Carl Silvernail will officiate and interment will be in Lakeside Cemetery.

He was born on March 23, 1889 in Caledonia, the son of Joseph and Susanna (Minkus) Statsick, and has been a resident of the area since a small child.

He married Laura Smith on Nov. 24, 1927, and they had lived on their farm in Sunfield Township all of their married life. He was a member of the Lakewood EUB Church, a veteran of World War I serving with the 21st Engineering, a member of the VFW, Farm Bureau and a charter member of the Lakeside Barracks.

Surviving are his wife, Laura, and two sisters, Mrs. Kenneth (Dorothy) Smith of Lake Odessa and Mrs. L. J. (Velma) Clark of Battle Creek.

Services Held for Mrs. Nellie M. Park

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Nellie M. Park, 92, a former Sunfield resident, Thursday, April 20, from the Mapes-Pisher Funeral Home in Sunfield. Mrs. Park passed away April 17 at a Ypsilanti hospital.

She was born November 15, 1874 in Danby Township, the daughter of William and Mary (Thornbury) Richardson. Mrs. Park lived in the Sunfield area until 1945. Her husband, William, died in 1936. She was a lifetime member of the Sunfield United Brethren Church.

Surviving are two sons, Dean of Howell and Donald of Marshall; 7 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

Officiating at the 2 p.m. rites was the Rev. Norman Wibert, pastor of the Calvary United Brethren Church of Lake Odessa. Interment was in Sunfield Cemetery.

Casketbearers were John Coppess, Jack Mapes, Phil Sipperley, Keith Hough, Bud Sutphen and Harold Bishop.

137
secretary of state and be of the same for ded, That the comm. e, together with a co such employer at of compliance with appended to the ori

s hereinafter pr imposed by otf

a the appropriate and in the name of penalties and inter. lly due this state. Th empowered to sue in the ion contributions, pen shed under the laws of y such state under the ficials to collect unem- conclusive evidence of tate as agent for or on liabilities for unemploy- such other state if such than 1 state; defini-

cal agreements with the federal government (1)

dividual may become en-

employment compensation law of another state or of the deemed to be wages and employment for the purposes of sec- provided such other state agency or agency of the federal gov- rse the fund for such portion of benefits paid under this act peration and services as the commission finds will be fair ted interests, and wages and employment on the basis of ne entitled to benefits under this act shall be deemed to be l of which unemployment compensation under such law of government is payable, and (2) whereby services performed employing unit for which services are customarily performed un 1 state shall be deemed to be services performed entirely

(a) in which any part of such individual's service is performed l has his residence or (c) in which the employing unit main- led there is in effect, as to such services, an election, approved e administration of such state's unemployment compensation e services performed by such individual for such employing ned entirely within such state, and (3) whereby the com- tate or federal agencies charged with the administration of ws with such reasonable portion of benefits, paid under the r of the federal government upon the basis of employment finds will be fair and reasonable as to all affected interests. all be deemed to be benefits for the purposes of limiting e purposes of section 26 of this act, but no reimbursements ainst any employer's experience record for the purposes of

Mr. on- W. at- is, re- er u- y s l 1 1 1 1 2 2 1 n s,

John Harwood

VERMONTVILLE—John Harwood, 87, a retired farmer from R. 2, Vermontville, died Wednesday in an Eaton Rapids Nursing Home.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Avis Bammer of Battle Creek, Mrs. Marial Piercy of Huntsville, Ala.; two sons, Kenneth of Charlotte, Ellsworth of Rockford, Ill., 13 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Services will be Saturday at 1:30 p.m. in the Vogt Funeral Home, Vermontville. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Louise A. Smith

CHARLOTTE—Mrs. Louise A. Smith, 85, of 235 S. Clinton St., Charlotte, died Thursday at the home of Mrs. Gladys Jacobs, 4668 Grandview, Okemos. She had been living there for the past three years. Mrs. Jacobs was a life resident of the Charlotte area.

Surviving are a daughter-in-law, Madeline Smith of Stanton, and two grandsons.

Services will be Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in the Pray Funeral Home, Charlotte. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Vermontville.

155