

Gertrude Barnum

SUNFIELD—Services for Mrs. Gertrude Barnum, 90, of 308 Washington St., will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Mapes-Fisher Funeral Home with burial in Sunfield Cemetery. Mrs. Barnum died Sunday in a Lansing Hospital.

She had been a lifelong area resident and is survived by four daughters, Miss Susie Barnum and Mrs. Ina Holton, both of Sunfield; Mrs. Iva Weiler of Vermontville and Mrs. Alta Williams of Ypsilanti; two sons, Otto of Detroit and Oren of Fountain, Colo.; a brother, Clifford Bosworth of Sunfield, nine grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

Service under act of congress (c) Service with respect to employment of commission is hereby publication thereof reciprocal treatment under this act, after who have, after congress, acquire

Agricultural

(d) "Agricultural"

(1) On a farm in connection with including the raising of bees, poultry, and

(2) In the connection with the operation of its tools and equipment by a hurricane

(3) In connection with any commodity agricultural market mushrooms, or in connection with cotton, or in connection with waterways used

(4) In handling, storing, or delivering any agricultural product incident to or incidental to the preparation paragraph shall in connection with commercial or horticultural for consumption.

As used in this bearing animals, and similar structures and orchards.

Domestic service

(e) Domestic service in a private home, local college club or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority not operated for profit;

Funeral Rites Held for Mrs. Gertrude Barnum

Services for Mrs. Gertrude Barnum, 90, of Washington St., Sunfield were held Wednesday afternoon in the Mapes-Fisher Funeral Home. Mrs. Barnum passed away Sunday, June 25, in a Lansing hospital.

Mrs. Barnum was born on July 31, 1876 in Sunfield Township, the daughter of Granger and Eva (Town) Bosworth. She had been a lifelong area resident and was a member of the Sunfield United Brethren Church.

Evelyn Fenwick

LAKE ODESSA — Mrs. Evelyn Fenwick, 71, died Monday afternoon at her home in Lake Odessa.

She resided in the Lake Odessa area for 11 years and previously lived in Sunfield Township.

She was a member of the Sautbee Lake Extension Group.

Surviving is a grandson, Robert Summney of Houston, Tex.

Services will be at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the Pickens Funeral Home, Lake Odessa. Burial will be in the Sunfield Cemetery.

W. J. Pratt

Surviving are four daughters, Miss Susie Barnum and Mrs. Melvin (Ina) Holton, both of Sunfield, Mrs. Walter (Iva) Weiler of Vermontville, and Mrs. Royce (Alta) Williams of Ypsilanti; two sons, Otto of Detroit and Oren of Fountain, Colo.; a brother, Clifford Bosworth of rural Sunfield; nine grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Thomas Meyers officiated at the 2 p.m. service. Interment was in the Sunfield Cemetery.

Casketbearers were Dale Williams, Larry Weiler, Neil Holton, Richard Hurlbut, Kenneth England and James Balford.

with the raising or harvesting of or in connection with the ginning of ditches, canals, reservoirs, for farming purposes;

g, processing, freezing, grading, for transportation to market, such service is performed as an fruits and vegetables, as an in-market. The provisions of this act to service performed in connection with any agricultural market for distribution stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, furs, ranges, greenhouses or other rural or horticultural commodities,

160