Unristian Educator Dies at 84

GREENVILLE, S.C. (UPI)-Bob Jones Sr, one of Christiani-He was 84.

A spokesman at Bob Jones University gave no cause for death, saying only that it came I "after a long illness."

will dispel the idea that is going greasy nose, dirty fingernails, baggy pants and that you must not shine your shoes."

Bob Jones College, firstr started in College Point, Fla., 5 with 88 students. It moved later to Cleveland, Tenn., and in 1947 A opened in Greenville as Bob le Jones University.

of * a Jones decreed that boys and it girls going to his university had to keep their bodies at least six inches apart and forbade them e Hollywood movies.

Drinking was strictly forbidđ den, and sexually integrated groups were not allowed to use the gymnasium, the swimming pool or the tennis courts at "the Il world's most unusual university."

No Negroes attend the school and the university, with Bo I- Jones Jr., as president, has tol the government it does no d expect any federal educatio funds.

The elder Jones served a chairman of the university' board of trustees until hi S retirement in 1964. He wa succeeded as chairman by hi n son in 1947 when the universit settled here. a

1. Jones traveled about nation in evangelist crusade es on the 5th anniversary of hi Freemire Cemetery. ed ministry he had preached t Pallbearers were Bruce Beneat more people than any othe dict, Lowell Steward, Curt 'll- living man.

in Born one of 12 children in Dale County, Alabama, Jones 1 a preached for over 70 years, starting as a revivalist at the ad age of 13. ton He was the only living person He was the only living person rs.

tind Canton, Ohio in 1966.

He was the only hving polocial selected for "The Christian Hall of Fame" which opened in R10W, Sturgis township, except Hat-Hat-One of the most famous a parcel described as beginning tst. students to attend the university 13; thence north 61° east 394 wei; after a brief stay in 1936. Bob Jones Sr. one of Christian was Billy Granam. Granam left 1/8 line of said section; thence y's leading fundamentalists and we'; founder of the "world's most 13e innusual university," died today. o ;; on the university campus's, said parcel containing 35.18 Wednesday at 3 p.m.

" OT

The northwest $\frac{1}{4}$ of section 13 and also the east $\frac{1}{2}$ of the northwest Jones, already an internation-hng five acres off the north end between the railroad and the east ally-known evangelist in 1927, l_i also excepting two acres off the north end of said east $\frac{1}{2}$ of the decided to build a school "that in the right of way line of the Dependencie Deiler allowed and the east en the right of way line of the Pennsylvania Railroad and the west around that if you have old-time p of the northwest 1/4; also excepting the right of way of the Pennreligion, you have to have a 0^{nv} All in township 8 south, range 10 west, Sturgis township, St.

Services Held Monday .te, June 24, 1957. for Ernest Benedict

Funeral services for Ernest

D. Benedict, 86, of Route 1, sturgis township to the city Vermontville were held Monday, Jan. 8, from the Mapes-

Fisher Funeral Home in Sun.: Acts of 1909, as amended, ٤ field. Mr Benedict passed away Friday at University Hos-Sturgis township, St. Joseph pital in Ann Arbor. He was born June 20, 1881, and south 1/4 line, section in Sunfield Township, the sonn 11; thence south 89° 53' of Emmet and Lucy (Stockley)

Benedict. He was a lifelong area farmer and a member of tate, July 10, 1957.

the Sunfield Methodist Church.

Surviving is his wife, Nellie;

a daughter, Mrs Evert (Helen)

Steward of Charlotte; two Sturgis township to the city sons, Harold and Carroll of rural Vermontville; a sister,

Mrs Frank (Jennie) Twichell c Acts of 1909, as amended, of Vermontville; a brother, Le Roy of Jackson; two step-sons, erly of the east line of the Richard Wright of Vermont-, R10W, where the said line ville and Dorr Wright of Se-h parallel with said east line attle, Wash.; 19 grandchildren 2, 350 feet; thence westerly and 17 great-grandchildren.

Officiating at the 2 p.m. serv-terly along the centerline of th ice was the Rev. Mark Vietzke nation in evangelist cru sade of the Sunfield Methodist after the founding of hi of the Sunfield Methodist university and it was said tha Church. Interment was in, R10W.

John Benedict, A. G. Twichell,

Dennis Cates and Dr. Sunil

Das.