

Claude Frank

Claude L. Frank, 67, of 264 Elm Street, Vermontville, died Tuesday, July 9, at Hayes Green Beach Hospital in Charlotte. Mr. Frank was born on September 2, 1901 in Tascumbbee, a son of Levi and Ellen (Ulman) Frank. He is survived by his wife, Mildred, one son, Vernon, of Vermontville, one daughter, Mrs. Jack (Dorothy) Kenniston of Hastings; a brother, Michael of Port Huron; three sisters, Mrs. Otto (Mildred) Graves of Flint; Mrs. Leo (Gladys) Teichert of Port Huron and Mrs. Claud (Ruth) Glenn of Port Huron, grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday from the Vogt Funeral Home in Vermontville with the Rev. Richard Garnier officiating. Burial was in Freemire Cemetery.

Services Held In Florida for Glen Randall

Glen Randall, 79 years old, of 500 20th St., Palmetto, Fla., died at a nursing home Monday, July 1, 1968. He was born in Eaton County, Michigan, and moved to Palmetto from there in 1956. Mr. Randall was a retired employee of the Boys Vocational School in Lansing. Survivors include his wife, Elta; a sister, Mrs. Fern Weingarten, of Lansing; and several nieces and nephews. Funeral was held at Edwards Funeral Home at Palmetto Friday, July 5.

ARCHITECTS, BOARD OF

- Appropriations
- ARMOR
- Municipal
- State expenditures
- ARRESTS
- Military
- ATHLETICS
- Board of
- Appropriations
- Municipal
- Boxing
- ATTACHMENTS
- Comm.
- ATTORNEYS
- Condemnation
- ATTORNEYS
- Appropriations
- Parole
- ATTORNEYS
- Council
- AUC
- Live
- AUL

EMMETT J. KNAPP
 Services were held on Wednesday from the Lehman Funeral Home for Emmet J. Knapp, 80, of 204 E. Capital Ave., Bellevue, who died at 11:30 p.m., Saturday in a Lansing hospital. He was admitted earlier in the afternoon after having been ill during most of the summer. Mr. Knapp was born October 13, 1888, in Sunfield, son of Daniel and Alice (Bliss) Knapp. He was married to Gertrude Jarvis on April 25, 1912, at the farm on which they then made their home. They farmed east of the village until four years ago when they moved to the village. Mr. Knapp worked for the Grand Trunk Western Railroad in Battle Creek until retiring in 1955. In addition to Mrs. Knapp he is survived by nieces and nephews. The final resting place was Riverside Cemetery.

- Appropriations, 517
- Justices of the peace, forms, 354
- Primary school interest fund, 91
- BALLOT BOXES
- Destruction, penalty, 280
- BALLOTS
- Agriculture, state board, designation, 14
- Bag type container, use, 283
- Community colleges, organization, 223
- Legislators, incumbency, 144
- Marking, 245
- Political parties, new, 309, 310

BERRIEN COUNTY

- Circuit court, place of
- BEVERAGES
- Real, sale to minors, 392
- BILL OF EXCHANGE
- Barer instrument, defined, 148
- BANKS
- Cartridge pistol
- BRIGHTENING
- Rehabilitation
- BLIND PEOPLE
- Employment
- Rehabilitation
- BLIND, SCHOOL
- Appropriations
- BOARD OF
- Lunches for
- School bus
- State board
- Transfer of
- BOARD OF
- Attorney, city
- Buildings
- Compensation
- Health department
- Historical
- Houseboats
- Intercounty
- Justice court
- Medical care
- Public works
- Retirement
- Sanatoriums

Mrs. Gertrude Lybrook Dies Here Monday

Mrs. Gertrude E. Lybrook, 93, of 220 S. Sheldon st., died at 6 p.m. Monday at a local convalescent home, where she had been a patient nine months. She had been in ill health 15 months. Mrs. Lybrook was born October 11, 1874 in Walton township, daughter of Sayles and Cordelia (Taggart) May. She had been a resident of the Charlotte area her entire life. Mrs. Lybrook was a member of the Lawrence Avenue Methodist church. She was married to William Lybrook July 17, 1901 in Ainger. He died in 1948. Surviving are several cousins.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 P.M. Thursday at the Burkhead Chapel. Interment will be in Maple Hill cemetery.

- BOATS, see WATERCRAFT
- BONDS
- Airport authority, 254, 257
- Blighted areas, rehabilitation, 435-439, 469-473
- Cities, improvement revolving funds, 61
- Community college districts, 214