RICHARD HICKEY PASSED AWAY THIS MORNING

Richard Hickey, well-known and highly-respected resident of Vermontville, passed away about 4:30 this (Thursday) morning at Saint Lawrence Hospital, Lansing, where he was taken for an operation which was performed Saturday morning, but the shock was too great for his weakened condition. Funeral services will be held at Hastings Catholic Church at 9:00 o'clock Saturday morning with burial there.

So Charlie Cupples has retired, has he? This Grand Rapids division of the Michigan Central won't look natural minus the sight of this good old chap somewhere along the right of way. He is entitled to a holiday and a long one and we join with all his friends in wishing him health and happiness as he starts the job of taking life easy, as the old saying goes. Luck and love old timer.
