

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Miss Oriuda Deuel, who died March 12, 1895, at her home in Bismarck, aged 52 years 4 months and 5 days.

Again the family chain is broken,
Another link torn from that band,
She whom we dearly loved has left us,
Left us for a better land.

She was taken from our number
In the bloom of health and youth,
While her life was bright with sunshine,
And love concealed by truth.

Though the one we loved is absent
From our home and fireside.
'Tis joy to know that peace
And rest with her abide.

Let us look beyond the present,
With the eye of faith to see
That although we miss our dear one,
She is happier, far, than we.

When at last we meet up yonder
In our heavenly father's home,
There we'll dwell in love forever,
Where no sorrows ever come.

—[MRS. MATE FERRIS.]