

LAMERSON, WAYNE L.
Canal Road, Delta Township

Wayne L. Lamerson, age 89, died Thursday afternoon at a local hospital. He had been a resident in Delta Township his entire life and was the oldest resident of Delta Township and worked his farm until 82 years old. He was a dry goods clerk in Knapp's and later in Arbaugh's some 35 years. Surviving are: sister, Mrs. F. B. Swanton of Lansing; nieces, Mrs. Arthur Richardson of Lansing, Mrs. Herbert Whitecraft Jr., Manitowoc, Wisconsin; 3 nephews, Floyd, of Lansing, Wayne and George Lamerson, both of Ann Arbor. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Monday at the Estes-Leadley Colonial Chapel and interment will be in Delta Center Cemetery.

W. L. Lamerson, Delta's Oldest Resident, Dies

Wayne L. Lamerson, 89, Canal Road, reportedly the oldest resident of Delta Township, died Thursday afternoon at a local hospital.

He had been a resident in Delta Township his entire life and worked his farm until 82 years old. He was a dry goods clerk in downtown department stores for 35 years.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. F. B. Swanton of Lansing; two nieces, Mrs. Arthur Richardson Jr., of Lansing, and Mrs. Herbert Whitecraft Jr., Manitowoc, Wis.; and three nephews, Floyd, of Lansing, and Wayne and George Lamerson, both of Ann Arbor.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Monday at the Estes-Leadley Colonial Chapel. Burial will be in Delta Center Cemetery.

William H. Roth

GRAND LEDGE — William H. Roth, 75, died Tuesday at his home, R. 1, Grand Ledge. He was born in Eaton County and was a member of the Eaton County Farm Bureau. He is survived by the widow, Lefa; three sons, Robert, Gerald and Harold, all of R. 1, Grand Ledge; a daughter, Lucille, of R. 1, Grand Ledge; three brothers, Walter of West Branch, and Arthur and Edgar of near Grand Ledge; three sisters, Mrs. Lillian Wight, of Grand Ledge, Mrs. Emma Sleight and Mrs. Esther Root, both of Mulliken, and five grandchildren. Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Peters Funeral Home, Grand Ledge. Burial will be in Meadowbrook Cemetery, Mulliken.

Sunfield Girl's Rites Wednesday

(Special to The State Journal)

SUNFIELD — Funeral services for Susan Hough, 13-year-old Sunfield girl who drowned Saturday in Morrison Lake, will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday from Mapes-Fisher Funeral Home here.

The body was recovered Sunday from the lake by state police scuba divers.

Survivors include her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hough; three sisters, Sharon, Sandra and Shelia, all at home, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Hough of Sunfield and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Shaffer of rural Mulliken. Burial will be in Sunfield Cemetery.

Mrs. Prudence Dodgson

CHARLOTTE — Mrs. Prudence Dodgson, 80, 218 N. Cochran Ave., died Wednesday afternoon at a local convalescent home after a long illness. A native here for 25 years, she was a member of the Kalamo OES and the Lawrence Avenue Methodist Church. Survivors include a step-daughter, Mrs. Donald Shepard of Charlotte, and two grandchildren. Services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday from the Pray Funeral Home with burial in Vermontville Cemetery.

David S. Davis

David S. Davis, 72, of Detroit, former Mulliken resident, died Monday, July 15, 1963, at the Michigan Masonic Home, Alma. He was the son of the late Walter Davis, onetime Mulliken postmaster and funeral director. Surviving are a daughter, Miss Dorothy Davis of Grand Rapids, and a sister, Miss Norma Davis, R. 1, Mulliken. Services were held Wednesday at Barker Funeral Home here, with burial in Meadowbrook cemetery.