

Mrs. Adella Lent Dies After Long Illness

1963

Funeral services were held Monday from the Methodist Church for Mrs. Adella Lent, 87. Mrs. Lent passed away Saturday morning at a Charlotte Nursing home after a long illness.

She was born May 31, 1876 in Vermontville, the daughter of De Witt J. and Hulda Hall Loomis. She was married to J. Milton Lent in Chicago. He passed away in 1948. Mrs. Lent was a member of Evening Star Chapter 342 O. E. S., the Methodist Church, WSCS and Bismark Community Builders.

Surviving is one daughter, Mrs. Vernon (Frances) MacDonald, three grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Rev. Howard Lindsay officiated and burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

Belva Green of Angola, Indiana was at Phil Greens last week.

Convicts eligible for parole

Grand Ledge Man Dies on Street

(Special to The State Journal)

GRAND LEDGE — George Broadbent Sr., 65, of R. 2, Grand Ledge, died Wednesday morning of a heart attack in downtown Grand Ledge.

He was stricken in front of his doctor's office in the 100 block of W. Jefferson Street where he was going for a checkup.

The Grand Ledge Fire Department's inhalator squad attempted to revive Broadbent.

He was a life-time resident of this area, Broadbent was a farmer and a member of the United Gospel Church. Survivors include his widow, Genevieve; one son, George R. of rural Grand Ledge; two grandchildren. Services will be at 2 p.m. Friday from Peters Funeral Home with burial in Bowne Cemetery in Kent County.

Marion C. Corey Dies Suddely Friday

Marion C. Corey, 72, died suddenly Friday afternoon of a heart attack while attending a stock sale in Hastings.

Mr. Corey had lived in Vermontville township all of his life and was a farmer. He was born October 11, 1890, the son of Sydney and Maud Swift Corey. June 4th 1917 he married Olive Shetenhelm also of Vermontville. He was a member of the Vermontville Maple Syrup Festival Corporation.

Surviving besides the widow is one son Marion S. Corey of Vermontville; one daughter, Mrs. Mary Weiss of Fort Collins, Colorado; and one sister Mrs. Addie Keefer of Vermontville and one grandson.

Funeral services were held on Monday July 29th from the Vogt funeral home. Rev. Leonard Koutz officiated and burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

ix
ge 197
204
207
207
208
209
209
210
211
212
213
226
226
227
237
237
238
239
240
241
242
243
244
245
246
247
247
248
249
250
250
251
251
252
254
258
264
265
266
267
269
269
270
271

olding

WYGANT, JOHN EDWIN
181 E. State Road
Donat. in O

John Edwin Wygant, age 78, died Saturday evening at a local hospital. Mr. Wygant had been a resident of Lansing since 1904, coming here from Charlotte, Mich. He was a charter member of the Valley Farms Baptist Church. He served as church treasurer at Valley Farms Church for many years. Mr. Wygant was engaged in the construction business in Lansing for many years. Surviving are a widow, Mrs. Pearl A. Wygant, and a son, Max, both of Lansing; 2 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild; a brother, George L. of Palmatier and sister, Mrs. Clara Palmatier, both of Lansing. Mrs. Hazel Deming, both of Lansing. Funeral services for Mr. Wygant will be held at the Estes-Leadley Colonial Chapel at 1 p.m. Tuesday, Rev. Vern A. Bretz of Valley Farms Baptist Church officiating, and he will be assisted by Rev. Walter W. Sluys of East DeWitt Bible Church. Bearers will be Clarence C. McDaniel, Harry L. Sutherland, Glen Crittenden, Calvin W. Wheat, Claude C. Buxton and Verlen Kruger.

Trailer coach park act, specific taxes