

Warren Walsh

Funeral services were held Wednesday, March 3, for Warren Walsh, 86, of Sunfield, who died Saturday night after a short illness. Walsh is survived by his son, Clifford of Vermontville; two sisters, Mrs. Myrna Ross of Kalamazoo and Mrs. Louise Eness of Edmore; two grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Services were from Mapes-Fisher Funeral Home, Sunfield.

Mrs. Viola Boyer

Funeral services for Mrs. Viola Boyer, 71, Mulliken, were held Saturday at the Methodist church. Burial was in Meadowbrook cemetery, Mulliken. Surviving are a son, Donley, of Chelsea; four granddaughters; two sisters.

Miss Velte Dies On Farm Where She Was Born

Funeral services for Miss Emma Velte, 93, R1 Woodland, who died at 10 p.m. Tuesday at her home a mile east of Woodland, are to be held at 3 p.m. Friday at the Pickens Chapel in Lake Odessa.

The Rev. Laurence Lowell is to officiate with burial in Woodland Memorial Cemetery.

Miss Velte had been in failing health for some time.

She was born July 26, 1871, in Woodland Township on the same farm where she spent her life and where she died. She was the daughter of Jacob and Mary (Haines) Velte.

She was a member of the Woodland Methodist Church and the WSCS, and is survived by several nieces and nephews.

73

as (c), (d), (e) and licenses issued by y having standards e recognized by all by local ordinance in the municipality y any municipality in

A. 18.204(8)] on for inspection and local requirements are sips of less than 5,000 ial census unless the to be covered by its e equipment or com- cated outdoors or in

Marion Deuel Dies Thursday

Marion Deuel, 82, a former Charlotte area resident, died of a heart attack Thursday at his home in Greenville where he had resided for the past 30 years.

Mr. Deuel was born October 8, 1882 in Sunfield, a son of Milo and Nancy Deuel. He was a retired farmer and had been a resident of Eaton county his entire life until moving to Greenville.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Albert (Darlene) Hetrick, and a son, Marvin, both of Springport.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Pray Funeral home. Burial was in Free mire cemetery near Sunfield.

Mrs. Blanche Osman Dies Here Tuesday

Mrs. Blanche Osman, 87, of 7140 Carlisle Highway, died at 4 p. m. Tuesday at Hayes-Green Beach Hospital shortly after admittance. She had been in ill health for several months. She was born March 14, 1878 in Danby Township, Ionia county, daughter of Loell and Captolia (Stearns) Robinson. She had been a resident of Kalamo township for 47 years, and was a member of the Kalamo Woman's Club and of the Kalamo Women's Society for Christian Service. On May 24, 1905, she was married to Alonzo Osman, who died in 1922. Surviving are two sons George of Jackson and Allen of Kalamo Township; two sisters Mrs. Calvin (Veda) Lowe of Kalamo Township and Mrs. Roy (Helen) Tanner of Carmel Township; three brothers, Lyle of Mar- son, Wynn of Gregory and Ver- of Bellevue; six grandchildrer and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Friday at the Pray Funeral Home. Burial was in Meadowbrook cemetery in Mulliken.

orated villages, planning, pro- maintaining and of 1 or more authorize such h purpose; to d to authorize sue or be sued and incident to arship, mainte- sary thereto of contents; tax ine the counties, set forth the 259.622 Same; body corporate, p

Sec. 2. The airport authority shall in any court of this state and may ex the acquisition, construction, improve nance and operation of the landing, nav 1 or more community airports.

259.623 Same; resolution designa limitation. [M.S.A. 10.313]

Sec. 3. (1) The resolution creatin cities, incorporated villages and townsh